2014 SPARTAN SPRING FOOTBALL PREVIEW
March 25-April 26 (Spring Game, April 26, 2 p.m.)

FIRST-AND-10 –

• Michigan State, which won a school-record 13 games in 2013 including a 24-20 victory over No. 5 Stanford in the 2014 Rose Bowl Game, begins its eighth spring practice under head coach Mark Dantonio on Tuesday, March 25. The Spartans will conclude their 15 spring practices with the annual Green-White Spring Game on Saturday, April 26 at 2 p.m. in Spartan Stadium. The spring game will be televised on BTN.

• MSU finished No. 3 in the final 2013 Associated Press and USA TODAY Polls, marking its highest placing in the national polls since 1966 when the Spartans ranked No. 2 in the AP and United Press International Polls with a 9-0-1 record. In addition, Michigan State (13-1) became just the third team in Big Ten history to win at least 13 games in a season (Minnesota, 1904; and Ohio State, 2002). The Spartans secured their first Rose Bowl berth in 26 years by winning their eighth Big Ten title in program history with a 34-24 victory over second-ranked Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game.

• The Spartans finished their Big Ten regular-season schedule with a perfect 8-0 record for the first time in school history and claimed their second Legends Division title in three seasons. Michigan State became the 14th Big Ten team to post an 8-0 mark in league play. The Spartans were the first Big Ten team to win all eight of its conference games by double-digit points since the league went to an eight-game schedule in 1971. In addition, MSU became the first undefeated Big Ten team to win all of its league games by double-figure points since Michigan in 1943 (6-0 record).

• Michigan State returns 47 letterwinners and five starters from the Big Ten's top-ranked defense in 2013. The Spartans led the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision in total defense for 13 straight weeks and finished the season ranked No. 2 in the FBS, allowing just 252.2 yards per game. MSU was the only school to rank in the top three in the four major defensive stat categories: No. 2 in total defense, No. 2 in rushing defense (86.6 ypg.), No. 3 in scoring defense (13.2 ppg.) and No. 3 in pass defense (165.6 ypg.). In addition, the Spartans led the FBS in pass efficiency defense (92.3 rating) and ranked No. 2 in opponent third-down conversions (.279) and No. 5 in first-downs defense (14.3 pg). MSU's defense allowed just 4.04 yards per play, which also ranked No. 1 in the FBS.

• The Spartans return seven starters and 16 players with starting experience on offense, including starting junior quarterback Connor Cook, who went 12-1 in his first season as the starter in 2013. MSU also welcomes back its top rusher in senior Jeremy Langford (292 carries for 1,422 yards and 18 TDs) and four of its top five receivers. Overall, the Spartans are returning 97 percent of their total offense from a year ago, 99 percent of their rushing yards and 79 percent of their receiving yards.

• The Spartans have won 42 of their last 54 games (.778), dating back to the beginning of the 2010 season. The 42 wins are most in the Big Ten and tied for ninth most in the FBS during that same time period. In addition, MSU has recorded 35 Big Ten victories since 2008, the most of any team in the conference (Note: Ohio State has won 40 games, but had to vacate seven victories following the 2010 season.). Since 2010, the Spartans have won two Big Ten Championships (2010, 2013), two Big Ten Legends Division titles (2011, 2013), and a school-record three-straight bowl games (2012 Outback Bowl, 2012 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, 2014 Rose Bowl Game). MSU has produced double-digit win totals three of the past four seasons (11 wins in 2010 and 2011; 13 in 2013).

• The Spartans are ranked in the Top 10 in "way-too-early" preseason polls by Dennis Dodd of CBSSports.com (No. 3), Mark Schlabach of ESPN.com (No. 4) and Martin Rickman of SI.com (No. 8).

• Michigan State has appeared in a school-record seven consecutive bowl games (2007 Champs Sports, 2009 Capital One, 2010 Alamo, 2011 Capital One, 2012 Outback, 2012 Buffalo Wild Wings, 2014 Rose). The seven-year bowl streak is currrently the second longest in the Big Ten and tied for 14th longest in the FBS.

• Head coach Mark Dantonio has led Michigan State to Top 25 finishes in four of the last six seasons (2008: No. 24 in both polls; 2010: No. 14 in both polls; 2011: No. 10 USA TODAY/No. 11 AP; and 2013: No. 3 in both polls).

• Seventh-year Michigan State head coach Mark Dantonio swept Big Ten Coach of the Year honors by winning both the Dave McClain Coach of the Year (media) and Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year (coaches). Six Spartans were named to the All-Big Ten First Team and a total of 16 players received all-conference recognition. The six first-team selections were the most for Michigan State since 1990, and the 16 honorees overall equaled the second most under Dantonio (19 in 2011, 16 in 2010). Two Spartans took home individual awards, as senior Darqueze Dennard was named the Tatum-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year, while sophomore Shilique Calhoun was named the Smith-Brown Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year. Dennard, Calhoun and senior linebacker Max Bullough were first-team selections by both the coaches and media. Junior safety Kurtis Drummond, senior safety Isaiah Lewis and junior punter Mike Sadler were named first-team All-Big Ten by the coaches. The five first-team selections on defense tied for the most in school history (1966).

RETURNING STAT LEADERS –
Rushing – Jeremy Langford (292 carries for 1,422 yards, 4.9 avg., 18 TDs)
Passing – Connor Cook (223 of 380 for 2,755 yards, 22 TDs, 6 INTs)
Receiving – Tony Lippett (44 catches for 613 yards, 13.9 avg., 2 TDs)
Tackles – Kurtis Drummond (91 tackles, 49 solos, 42 assists, 3.5 TFLs, 4 INTs, 6 PBUs)

PERSONNEL BRIEFING: OFFENSE –
• Quarterbacks: Junior Connor Cook returns for his second season as the starting quarterback in 2014 after leading the Spartans to a Big Ten Championship and a victory in the Rose Bowl Game last season . . . Cook finished his first year as the starter with one of the best statistical seasons in school history, ranking second in the MSU single-season record book in touchdown passes (22), fourth in total offense (2,831 yards) and pass attempts (380), fifth in passing yards (2,755), and sixth in pass completions (223) . . . Cook was named the Most Outstanding Player in the Big Ten Championship Game after throwing for 304 yards and three touchdowns, and he topped that performance by racking up a career-high 332 passing yards and two touchdowns against the Cardinal while being named the Rose Bowl Game's Offensive MVP . . . sophomore Tyler O'Connor and red-shirt freshman Damion Terry will compete for the back-up position.

• Running Backs: A year after losing All-American Le'Veon Bell to the NFL Draft, the Spartans return 99 percent of their rushing yards from 2013, including leading rusher Jeremy Langford . . . Langford led the Big Ten with 18 rushing touchdowns and also ranked among the Big Ten leaders in total touchdowns (first with 19), scoring (third with 8.1 ppg.) and rushing (sixth with 101.6 ypg.) . . . Langford ranked among MSU's single-season leaders in touchdowns (third with 19), rushing touchdowns (fourth with 18), rushing attempts (sixth with 292) and rushing yards (eighth with 1,422) . . . he established a school record by rushing for more than 100 yards in eight consecutive games . . . fifth-year senior Nick Hill (67 carries for 344 yards, 1 TD) and sophomore Delton Williams (38 carries for 238 yards, 1 TD) return as letterwinners.

• Wide Receivers: Michigan State returns 79 percent of its receiving yards in 2014, losing only fifth-year senior Bennie Fowler. Although Fowler led the team in receiving yards (622) and touchdown receptions (6) and ranked third in receptions (36), MSU returns four receivers with multiple years of starting experience, including seniors Tony Lippett and Keith Mumphery and juniors Aaron Burbridge and Macgarrett Kings Jr. . . . Lippett led the Spartans with a career-high 44 catches for 613 yards and two TDs in 2013 . . . Kings also posted career numbers with 43 receptions for 513 yards and three TDs.

• Offensive Line: Although the Spartans lost three starters (RT Fou Fonoti, RG Dan France, LG Blake Treadwell) from the strongest offensive line of the head coach Mark Dantonio era, MSU brings back five veterans that have played extensively up front . . . fifth-year senior Travis Jackson has 18 starts to his credit, including his first career start at right guard in the Rose Bowl Game in place of injured starter Dan France; Jackson will open spring practice as the No. 1 left guard . . . junior center Jack Allen earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the media last season . . . sophomore left tackle Jack Conklin started 13 games in his first season, including the last 10 at left tackle, and was named a first-team Freshman All-American . . . junior Donavon Clark appeared in all 14 games last season, including four starts at left tackle; he will open spring practice as the No. 1 right tackle . . . senior Connor Kruse played all five positions on the offensive line last year and saw regular time in the playing rotation as a guard; he will open spring practice as the No. 1 right guard.

• Tight Ends: Four of the five tight ends that earned letters for the Spartans last season are back in 2014. The group combined for 28 catches for 317 yards and five TDs . . . sophomore Josiah Price led the unit with 17 receptions for 210 yards and four TDs in his first season . . . junior Andrew Gleichert had a career-best six catches for 49 yards and one score . . . red-shirt freshman Jamal Lyles, who moved over to offense after playing defensive end in 2012, caught five passes for 58 yards . . . junior Paul Lang also saw time at the position . . . Michael Dennis, who started six games and was primarily used as a blocking tight end, is graduating in May and has elected not to use his final year of eligibility.

PERSONNEL BRIEFING: DEFENSE –

• Defensive Line: The Spartans return the best defensive end duo in the Big Ten in 2014, according to ESPN.com, in fifth-year senior Marcus Rush and junior Shilique Calhoun . . . a three-year starter, Rush has started 40 of his 41 career games and has 11 sacks and 27 tackles for loss . . . a second-team All-American, Calhoun was named the 2013 Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year after racking up 7.5 sacks (45 yards) and 14 tackles for loss (75 yards); he also tied for the FBS lead with three defensive TDs and ranked tied for second with four fumble recoveries . . . two-year letterwinner Lawrence Thomas also will contribute at defensive end . . . MSU will have to fill holes in the middle of the line left by the departures of fifth-year starters Tyler Hoover and Micajah Reynolds . . . reserve Mark Scarpinato also retired to focus on medical school . . . juniors Damon Knox and Joel Heath enter spring practice listed as the starters on the interior of the line . . . Brandon Clemons and James Kittredge also will compete for playing time.

• Linebackers: The Spartans must replace two of the most decorated linebackers in school history after losing three-year starters Denicos Allen and Max Bullough . . . Bullough, a middle linebacker, was a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection and ranked among MSU's all-time leaders in tackles for loss (30.5) and tackles (299) . . . at Sam (strong side) linebacker, Allen finished his career ranked third in MSU history in tackles for loss (46) and sixth in sacks (19.5) . . . senior Taiwan Jones started 13 games at Star (weak side) linebacker last season and is MSU's second-leading returning tackler after posting a career-high 67 as a junior; he will open spring practice as the starter at Mike (middle) linebacker . . . junior Darien Harris shared middle linebacker duties with Kyler Elsworth in the Rose Bowl Game against Stanford due to Max Bullough's suspension and collected a career-high four tackles; Harris will compete for the starting Star (weakside) position, along with fifth-year senior Mylan Hicks . . . junior Ed Davis recorded 17 tackles, including four sacks, as a sophomore in 2013 and is poised to take over Allen's spot at Sam linebacker.

• Secondary: Junior Trae Waynes appears to be next line as MSU's lock-down cornerback, following in the footsteps of 2013 Jim Thorpe Award winner and unanimous All-American Darqueze Dennard . . . Waynes had three interceptions in the final three games of the season, including a pick in the Rose Bowl Game against Stanford . . . the other cornerback position is wide open heading into spring practice; sophomore Darian Hicks enters spring listed as the starter, but Jermaine Edmondson and Ezra Robinson will also compete for the position . . . junior Arjen Colquhoun, a two-year letterwinner, will also see time at cornerback . . . at safety, fifth-year senior Kurtis Drummond returns for his third year as a starter . . . Drummond earned first-team All-Big Ten honors as a junior in 2013 with a career-high 91 tackles, four interceptions and six pass break-ups . . . junior RJ Williamson, who started twice last season, will move into a full-time starting role in 2014; he recorded 44 tackles and two pass break-ups as a sophomore . . . sophomore Demetrious Cox and will also push for playing time.

PERSONNEL BRIEFING: SPECIAL TEAMS –

• Placekicker: Sophomore Michael Geiger set a MSU single-season record for field-goal percentage as a true freshman, making 93.8 percent of his attempts (15-of-16); that percentage also ranked first in the Big Ten and tied for fourth best in the FBS . . . Geiger, who was 8-of-8 from 40-plus yards, was named a first-team Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America . . . he will likely take over the kickoff duties with the departure of fifth-year senior Kevin Muma.

• Punter: Fifth-year senior Mike Sadler returns for his fourth and final season as the starting punter . . . a valuable weapon on special teams, Sadler ranked first in the FBS last season in punts inside the 10 (24) and tied for second in punts inside the 20 (33) . . . he ranked fourth in the Big Ten with a 42.5-yard punting average . . . Sadler was tabbed a first-team All-American by ESPN.com and CBSSports.com, and also was a first-team Academic All-American.

• Long Snapper: Junior Taybor Pepper returns for his third season as the starting long snapper.

• Kick Returner: Sophomore R.J. Shelton led the Spartans last season with nine kick returns for 199 yards (22.1 avg.).

• Punt Returner: Junior Macgarrett Kings Jr. ranked third in the Big Ten in punt returns in 2013 (206 yards on 20 returns, 10.3 avg.).

No. 12 - Thursday, April 17
No. 13 - Tuesday, April 22
No. 14 - Thursday, April 24
No. 15 - Saturday, April 26 (Spring Game, 2 p.m., Spartan Stadium)

QUICK LOOK AT THE 2014 SCHEDULE –

• Michigan State enters the 2014 season on a 10-game winning streak, which is tied for the fourth longest in school history. MSU opens the season at home Aug. 30 against FCS member Jacksonville State. The Gamecocks went 11-4 in 2013 and advanced to the FCS quarterfinals before bowing out to Eastern Washington. MSU is 4-0 all-time against FCS schools.

• In a marquee non-conference matchup, the Spartans will travel to Eugene, Ore., to face Oregon on Sept. 6 in Autzen Stadium. MSU is 2-2 against Oregon, with the last matchup coming in 1999, a 27-20 win for the Spartans in East Lansing. In the "way-too-early" preseason polls that have released, the Ducks are ranked No. 3 by CBSSports.com's Dennis Dodd, No. 5 by ESPN.com's Mark Schlabach of ESPN.com, and No. 5 by SI.com's Martin Rickman.

• The Spartans will also face Eastern Michigan (Sept. 20) and Wyoming (Sept. 27) in non-conference action at Spartan Stadium. MSU will celebrate its 99th Homecoming game Sept. 27 against Wyoming.

• MSU will open Big Ten play Oct. 4 at home against Nebraska before traveling to Purdue (Oct. 11) and Indiana (Oct. 18).

• For the first time in series history, Michigan State will play host to Michigan in back-to-back seasons. The Spartans defeated the Wolverines in East Lansing in 2013, 29-6. The two rivals will meet again in Spartan Stadium in 2014 on Oct. 25.

• In a rematch of the 2013 Big Ten Championship Game, MSU will play host to Ohio State on Nov. 8.

• MSU will make its first trip to Maryland since 1944 and only the second in series history on Nov. 15. The Spartans are set to close the home season on Nov. 22 for its first-ever Big Ten game against Rutgers.

• The 2013 regular-season finale will be Nov. 29 at Penn State, as the Spartans and Nittany Lions will renew their Land Grant Trophy series. Michigan State last played Penn State in the 2010 regular-season finale and defeated PSU, 28-22, to clinch a share of the Big Ten Championship.

NEW BIG TEN DIVISIONS IN 2014 –

• Beginning in 2014, the Big Ten football division alignments will feature Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State, Penn State and Rutgers in the East Division and Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin in the West Division.

• Each school will play the other six schools in its division plus two teams from the other division in 2014 and 2015, which will serve as transitional years in which the schools will still be playing eight-game schedules.

• Beginning in 2016, each school will play three teams from the other division as part of its nine-game schedule. The cross-division games will include one protected matchup on an annual basis between Indiana and Purdue.

• From Sept. 27 to Nov. 29, the 2014 Big Ten schedule will feature 10 consecutive weekends of Big Ten competition, boasting at least five conference games each week. All 14 teams will be in action during the final two weekends of Big Ten play, including six division games each weekend. The winners of each division will meet in the 2014 Big Ten Football Championship Game, scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 6 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.

DANTONIO SIGNS AMENDED CONTRACT –

• Michigan State head football coach Mark Dantonio, who has compiled a 64-29 record (.688) in his first seven seasons including a school-record seven consecutive postseason bowl appearances, has been rewarded with a revised contract, according to a joint announcement made Feb. 25 by MSU Athletics Director Mark Hollis and MSU President Lou Anna K. Simon.

• During his tenure, Dantonio has led Michigan State to four Top 25 finishes (2008: No. 24 in both polls; 2010: No. 14 in both polls; 2011: No. 10 USA TODAY/No. 11 AP; and 2013: No. 3 in both polls).

• From his first day on the job, Dantonio has pledged to support student-athletes as they pursue excellence, both in the classroom and on the playing field. In his first seven seasons, 80 percent (98 of 123) of his Michigan State players who have completed their eligibility have earned their undergraduate degrees. In addition, his players have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors 87 times, including six Academic All-Americans.

• Under the amended terms, a year has been added to the length of Dantonio's contract, making it a six-year rollover. In addition, increases have been made to his base salary (from $682,905 to $2 million), supplemental income (from $869,000 to $1 million) and contingent annual base (from $200,000 to $286,000). Under the new terms, Dantonio will have access to a private airplane for 25 hours of personal use. He also will continue to receive $100,000 from his shoe/apparel agreement and $50,000 guaranteed performance incentives.

• The amended contract now provides Dantonio with an opportunity to work for the MSU Athletics Department for five years (previously two years) after he retires from coaching, and the buy-out provisions have been modified.

• With the revisions, Dantonio's annual compensation increases from $1.99 million to $3.64 million.

Here are the annual compensation components of the amended contract:

• $2,000,000 base salary
• $1,000,000 supplemental income
• $286,000 contingent annual bonus
• $204,917 benefits
• $100,000 shoe/apparel agreement
• $50,000 guaranteed performance incentives

Hollis also announced that nearly $785,000 has been allocated to enhance the salaries of the assistant coaches.

Here are the updated salary figures (includes annual retention bonus) for the football coaching staff:

• assistant head coach/defensive coordinator Pat Narduzzi - $904,583
• co-offensive coordinator/tight ends coach Jim Bollman - $368,333
• secondary coach Harlon Barnett - $260,000
• defensive line coach Ron Burton - $243,750
• quarterbacks coach/recruiting coordinator Brad Salem - $254,583
• wide receivers coach Terrence Samuel - $243,750
• offensive line coach Mark Staten - $254,583
• linebackers/special teams coach Mike Tressel - $260,000
• co-offensive coordinator/running backs coach Dave Warner - $379,167

MSU President Lou Anna K. Simon:
"Under Coach Dantonio's leadership, the MSU football program not only has risen in national prominence but also continues to develop well-rounded student-athletes who have gone on to great careers in a variety of fields. Week in and week out, Coach Dantonio empowers our players to meet and exceed their goals. That laser focus, sense of family and value-based work ethic are what being a Spartan is all about."

MSU Athletics Director Mark Hollis:
"Mark Dantonio and his assistants have done a remarkable job in putting Michigan State football back on the national map and positioning it to compete for Big Ten Championships on a consistent basis. The amended contract and enhanced compensation reflect his and his coaching staff's value in the current marketplace. These updated figures position Mark and his staff in the upper tier of the Big Ten. We believe that we have not only one of the finest head coaches in the conference but in all of college football, and we feel the same about his assistant coaches.

"Continuity has been and will continue to be an important ingredient for the sustained success of our football program. The increased compensation isn't simply a reward for past performance but signifies our expectation for continued excellence.

"Mark has demonstrated his outstanding leadership abilities in building the program for the long haul. He and his coaching staff have created a winning culture, based upon communication, leadership and counsel. Mark and his assistants have created a positive environment for current and future student-athletes to grow and develop as both students and athletes.

"They're committed to preparing our student-athletes for their professional careers, whether in professional football or other walks of life. It's obvious that Mark and his staff strive to build relationships that will last well beyond the four- or five-year experience on our campus."

MSU head coach Mark Dantonio:
"The University continues to make a commitment to provide all of the necessary tools to build and sustain a championship-caliber football program. I want to thank President Simon, Mark Hollis and the entire administration for their trust and loyalty.

"Coaching staff stability is extremely important for the long-term success of a program. We have outstanding coaches and support personnel. We're very excited about what our program has accomplished over the last seven years, and we believe the best is yet to come.

"Our focus will be to continue winning championships. We have proven that we can consistently compete with the top teams in the country. As we move forward, we will continue to dream big."

2014 RECRUITING CLASS –
Michigan State head coach Mark Dantonio introduced the Spartans' 2014 recruiting class Feb. 5 at a press conference inside the Clara Bell Smith Center Auditorium.

The class features 22 players representing nine states (California, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Michigan, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin).

PROGRAM NOTES –

• Michigan State has won eight Big Ten Championships in school history (1953, 1965, 1966, 1978, 1987, 1999, 2010, 2013).

• With a school-record 13 victories in 2013, it marked the fifth time MSU has recorded double-digit wins in a season (10 in 1966, 10 in 1999, 11 in 2010, 11 in 2011, 13 in 2013), including three under Dantonio.

• MSU's 42 wins since 2010 is ninth most among NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams (tied with South Carolina) and most in the Big Ten during that same period. The Spartans have posted four consecutive winning seasons, a first for the program since recording six in a row from 1985-90. MSU has won 42 of its last 54 games (.778), dating back to the beginning of the 2010 season. In addition, the Spartans have won 15 of their last 16 games, dating back to the 2012 regular-season finale.

• Michigan State has appeared in a school-record seven consecutive bowl games (2007 Champs Sports, 2009 Capital One, 2010 Alamo, 2011 Capital One, 2012 Outback, 2012 Buffalo Wild Wings, 2014 Rose). The seven-year bowl streak is currrently the second longest in the Big Ten and tied for 14th longest in the FBS.

• Michigan State is one of only eight schools to have had at least one player chosen every year since the inception of the common NFL Draft in 1967. MSU joins Arizona State, Florida, Michigan, Nebraska, Tennessee, Texas and USC as the only programs with at least one draft choice for 47 consecutive years.

• Michigan State and Florida are the only schools in the country to win multiple National Championships in football and men's basketball. MSU has won six national titles in football (1951, 1952, 1955, 1957, 1965, 1966) and two in men's basketball (1979, 2000). Michigan State is also the only school in the nation to win multiple National Championships in football, men's basketball and hockey.

• Since 2008, MSU has recorded 35 Big Ten regular-season victories, the most of any team in the conference (Note: Ohio State has won 40 games, but had to vacate seven victories following the 2010 season.). The Spartans produced back-to-back 11-win seasons in 2010-11 for the first time in program history, claimed a share of the Big Ten Championship in 2010, and won the inaugural Big Ten Legends Divisions title in 2011.

• Since 2010, MSU has recorded 25 Big Ten victories, the most of any team in the conference (Note: Ohio State has won 26 games, but had to vacate seven victories following the 2010 season.)

• Michigan State's school-record three-game bowl winning streak (2012 Outback, 2012 Buffalo Wild Wings, 2014 Rose Bowl) is also currently the longest active streak in the Big Ten.

DANTONIO NAMED COACH OF THE YEAR, SIX SPARTANS EARN FIRST-TEAM ALL-BIG TEN HONORS –

• Seventh-year Michigan State head coach Mark Dantonio swept Big Ten Coach of the Year honors by winning both the Dave McClain Coach of the Year (media) and Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year (coaches). Since the award's inception in 1972, Dantonio is the first Spartan coach to earn Dave McClain Coach of the Year honors twice. He also won the award in 2010 after leading MSU to an 11-1 regular-season record and a share of the Big Ten Championship.

• Six Spartans were named to the All-Big Ten First Team and a total of 16 players received all-conference recognition. The six first-team selections are the most for Michigan State since 1990, and the 16 honorees overall equal the second most under Dantonio (19 in 2011, 16 in 2010).

• Two Spartans took home individual awards, as senior Darqueze Dennard was named the Tatum-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year, while sophomore Shilique Calhoun was selected the Smith-Brown Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year.

• Dennard, Calhoun and senior linebacker Max Bullough were first-team selections by both the coaches and media. Junior safety Kurtis Drummond, senior safety Isaiah Lewis and junior punter Mike Sadler were named first-team All-Big Ten by the coaches. The five first-team selections on defense are tied for the most in school history (1966).

• Senior linebacker Denicos Allen and senior offensive guard Blake Treadwell were second-team picks by both the coaches and media. Sophomore quarterback Connor Cook received second-team accolades from the coaches, while sophomore center Jack Allen garnered second-team honors from the media. Drummond and Sadler were also second-team choices by the media.

• Senior offensive tackle Fou Fonoti, senior offensive tackle Dan France, junior running back Jeremy Langford, junior defensive end Marcus Rush and sophomore cornerback Trae Waynes were honorable mention selections by both the coaches and media. In addition, Jack Allen was named honorable mention by the coaches, while Cook, Lewis and placekicker Michael Geiger were honorable mention choices by the media.

SPARTAN DEFENSE RANKED NO. 1 IN BIG TEN FOR THIRD YEAR IN A ROW –
• Michigan State has led the Big Ten in total defense and rushing defense the past three seasons.

• The Spartans led the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision in total defense for 13 straight weeks and finished the season ranked No. 2 in the FBS, allowing just 252.2 yards per game.

• MSU was the only school to rank in the top three in the four major defensive stat categories: No. 2 in total defense, No. 2 in rushing defense (86.6 ypg.), No. 3 in scoring defense (13.2 ppg.) and No. 3 in pass defense (165.6 ypg.).

• In addition, the Spartans led the FBS in pass efficiency defense (92.3 rating) and ranked No. 2 in opponent third-down conversions (.279) and No. 5 in first-downs defense (14.3 pg). MSU's defense allowed just 4.04 yards per play, which also ranked No. 1 in the FBS.

• Michigan State held all 14 of its opponents in 2013 under their season average in points and total offense.

• Michigan State led the Big Ten in nine defensive stat categories, including total defense and rushing defense for the third year in a row. Since the Big Ten awarded conference stat champions in 1985 for overall games, MSU is the first team to win three-straight titles in total defense and rushing defense.

• The Spartans led the Big Ten and ranked second in the NCAA FBS in rushing defense, allowing just 86.6 yards per game, which also marked the seventh-best effort in school history. MSU has finished in the Top 25 nationally in rushing defense four of the past five seasons (24th in 2009; ninth in 2011; eighth in 2012; second in 2013).

• MSU's defense allowed just 4.04 yards per play and 2.85 yards per rushing attempt, which ranked No. 1 and No. 3 in the FBS, respectively. In addition, MSU tied for first in the FBS, along with Alabama, Memphis and Wisconsin, in fewest opponent rushes of 10-plus yards (35). The Spartans allowed 41 plays of 20-plus yards (2.9 pg.), tied for ninth fewest in the FBS.

• The Spartans held 10 of their 14 opponents below 100 yards rushing. Michigan State was the last team in the FBS in 2013 to allow an opponent to rush for more than 100 yards in a game (Nebraska, 182 yards on Nov. 16). In 93 games under Mark Dantonio, MSU has held its opponents under 100 yards rushing 45 times (48 percent).

• Michigan State's defense featured five first-team All-Big Ten selections, tying for the most in school history (1966). Senior linebacker Max Bullough, sophomore defensive end Shilique Calhoun, senior cornerback Darqueze Dennard, junior safety Kurtis Drummond and senior safety Isaiah Lewis all garnered first-team accolades from the league's coaches, while Bullough, Calhoun and Dennard were also on the media's first team. Eight of MSU's starters received All-Big Ten recognition (second team: senior linebacker Denicos Allen; honorable mention: junior defensive end Marcus Rush, sophomore cornerback Trae Waynes). Calhoun was named the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year, while Dennard was named the Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year and recipient of the Jim Thorpe Award (nation's best defensive back).

TOUGH TO SCORE ON SPARTAN DEFENSE –

• Michigan State, which has ranked in the FBS Top 10 the past three seasons in scoring defense, ranked third in the FBS in 2013, allowing just 13.2 points per game.

• MSU prevented six opponents from scoring a touchdown (South Florida, Purdue, Illinois, Michigan, Northwestern, Minnesota), and the Spartans shut out six of their eight Big Ten opponents in the second half. MSU went a span of 194 minutes and 33 seconds without allowing a touchdown, as the Spartans kept Purdue (Oct. 19), Illinois (Oct. 26) and Michigan (Nov. 2) out of the end zone. Indiana scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter against the Spartans on Oct. 12, and Nebraska snapped the streak with a TD in the first quarter on Nov. 16.

• The Spartans allowed just 20 touchdowns on defense (eight rushing, 12 passing), which ranked second fewest in the FBS for the second year in a row.

• In the 2014 Rose Bowl Game victory over No. 5 Stanford, the Cardinal were held to just one offensive touchdown and 11 first downs (season lows), 162 rushing yards (second-lowest total of the season) and 304 yards of total offense (third-lowest total of the season).

• Michigan State only allowed its opponents to score on 19 percent of their possessions (33-of-173), including 12 percent (20-of-173) for touchdowns.

• Michigan State allowed its opponents 30 trips into the red zone in 2013, tied for fourth fewest in the FBS. Among those 30 trips, the Spartans gave up 14 touchdowns (44.4 percent, sixth best in FBS).

• MSU has shut out its opponent in the second half seven times in 2013 and nine times in the fourth quarter.

• The Spartans blanked Purdue, 14-0, on Oct. 19 in Spartan Stadium, marking MSU's first Big Ten shutout since 1999 against Northwestern. Under Dantonio, the Spartans have recorded three shutouts (2008 vs. Florida Atlantic, 2011 vs. Florida Atlantic, 2013 vs. Purdue).

• MSU's defense allowed more than 17 points just three times all season (28 vs. Indiana and Nebraska, 24 vs. Ohio State) and gave up just 72 points total in the second half of games (5.1 pg.).

• Since the beginning of the 2010 season, Michigan State's defense has held 16 opponents (30 percent) to less than 10 points, including six times in 2013 (South Florida, Purdue, Illinois, Michigan, Northwestern, Minnesota).

TURNOVERS, SACKS THE DIFFERENCE IN 2013 FOR SPARTANS –

• In 2012, the Spartans ranked 84th nationally in sacks (20) and 76th in takeaways (20). In 2013, the Spartans ranked tied for 31st in the FBS in sacks (32) and tied for 20th in takeaways (28). In addition, MSU ranked tied for third in the FBS with five defensive touchdowns after not recording any in 2012.

• Michigan State ranked first in the Big Ten and tied for 10th in the FBS in turnover margin (+13, 0.93 per game). The Spartans forced a total of 28 turnovers (11 fumbles, 17 interceptions), including five for touchdowns (three fumble recoveries, two interception returns). MSU converted those 28 takeaways into 93 points. The Spartans forced the most turnovers in the Big Ten (28) and also turned the ball over the least amount of times (15) in the conference. MSU's seven interceptions tied for a conference low and tied for 11th fewest in the FBS.

• Michigan State has forced at least one turnover in 74 of 93 games over the last seven seasons (80 percent of the games played since 2007), including 12 games in 2013.

• The Spartans ranked tied for second in the Big Ten and tied for 23rd in the FBS with 17 interceptions.

• Michigan State forced five turnovers in the win over Nebraska on Nov. 16, the most caused by the Spartans in the Coach Mark Dantonio era. MSU converted those five turnovers into 24 points.

BY THE NUMBERS

1 Michigan State's ranking in the Big Ten in total defense and rushing defense the past three seasons.

2 MSU is one of two schools in the country, along with Florida, to win multiple National Championships in both football and men's basketball.

3 MSU finished No. 3 in the final 2013 national polls, the highest ranking for the program since 1966.

3 MSU has won a school-record three bowl games in a row, the longest active streak in the Big Ten.

4.04 MSU allowed just 4.04 yards per offensive play, which ranked No. 1 in the NCAA FBS.

7 Michigan State has appeared in a school-record seven consecutive bowl games; it's also the 14th-longest active streak in the FBS and second longest in the Big Ten.

20 MSU only allowed 20 touchdowns on defense in 2013, second fewest in the FBS for the second year in a row.

35 MSU has won 35 Big Ten games since 2008, the most of any conference team.

42 MSU has won 42 games since the beginning of the 2010 season, most in the Big Ten and tied for ninth most in the FBS during that time period.

45 In the Dantonio era, Michigan State has held its opponent below 100 yards rushing in 45 of 93 games (48 percent).

SPARTAN OFFENSIVE NOTES FROM 2013 –

• Quarterback Connor Cook was named the Most Outstanding Player in the Big Ten Championship Game after throwing for 304 yards and three touchdowns, and he topped that performance by racking up a career-high 332 passing yards and two touchdowns against the Cardinal while being named the Rose Bowl Game's Offensive MVP.

• Cook finished his first year as the starter with one of the best statistical seasons in school history, ranking second in the MSU single-season record book in touchdown passes (22), fourth in total offense (2,831 yards) and pass attempts (380), fifth in passing yards (2,755), and sixth in pass completions (223).

• Jeremy Langford led the Big Ten with 18 rushing touchdowns. He also ranked among the Big Ten leaders in total touchdowns (first with 19), scoring (third with 8.1 ppg.) and rushing (sixth with 101.6 ypg.).

• Langford ranked among MSU's single-season leaders in touchdowns (third with 19), rushing touchdowns (fourth with 18), rushing attempts (sixth with 292) and rushing yards (eighth with 1,422). He established a school record by rushing for more than 100 yards in eight consecutive games.

• The offensive line, which rotated in eight different players, was one of the top units in the country and a key reason why MSU ranked seventh in the FBS in time of possession (33:19). In addition to a strong running game, the Spartans only allowed 17 sacks, second fewest in the Big Ten and 15th fewest in the FBS.

• Six starters earned All-Big Ten recognition on the offense, including Connor Cook (second team, coaches), senior offensive guard Blake Treadwell (second team, coaches and media), sophomore center Jack Allen (second team, media), senior offensive tackle Fou Fonoti (honorable mention), senior offensive guard Dan France (honorable mention) and Jeremy Langford (honorable mention).

• Nine different Spartans caught touchdowns in 2013, led by fifth-year senior Bennie Fowler, who hauled in six.

• Bennie Fowler led the Spartans with a career-high 622 receiving yards on 36 catches, while junior Tony Lippett (44 catches for 613 yards) and sophomore Macgarrett Kings Jr. (43 for 513 yards) both recorded career highs in receptions and receiving yards.

• Tony Lippett was named to the ESPN.com Big Ten All-Bowl Team after collecting a career-high 94 receiving yards on five receptions in the Rose Bowl Game victory over No. 5 Stanford, including the game-winning 22-yard touchdown grab in the fourth quarter. Jack Allen and Blake Treadwell were also named to the ESPN.com Big Ten All-Bowl Team.

• For the third-straight season, the Spartan offense featured a Freshman All-American, as Jack Conklin earned first-team honors from the Football Writers Association, Sporting News and CollegeFootballNews.com.

TRULY ELITE –

• Since 2011, Michigan State's defense has been one of the most consistent in the FBS. The Spartans are one of just four schools, along with Alabama, Florida and Florida State, to rank among the FBS Top 10 in total defense the past three seasons.

• Michigan State and Alabama are the only teams to rank in the FBS Top 11 the past three years in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and passing defense.

• The Spartans are one of just two NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision Schools, along with Alabama, to rank in the Top 10 nationally in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense the last three years.

• Since the beginning of 2011, Michigan State has held 25 opponents under 100 rushing yards (seven in 2011; eight in 2012; 10 in 2013), which ranks tied for third most in the NCAA FBS (Alabama: 29; Stanford: 27; MSU/Florida State: 25).

PAT NARDUZZI WINS 2013 FRANK BROYLES AWARD –

• Michigan State assistant head coach/defensive coordinator Pat Narduzzi was named the winner of the 2013 Frank Broyles Award, which is awarded annually to the nation's top assistant coach. Narduzzi was honored, along with his fellow finalists, at a Dec. 10, 2013, luncheon at the Marriott Hotel in Little Rock. Narduzzi accepted the Broyles Award trophy, valued at more than $5,000.

• The five finalists included Rhett Lashlee (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks, Auburn), Philip Montgomery (offensive coordinator, Baylor), Kurt Roper (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks, Duke), Jeremy Pruitt (defensive coordinator, Florida State) and Narduzzi.

• Narduzzi is the first MSU coach to win the award, which started in 1996.

• Narduzzi was also named the National Coordinator of the Year by Athlon Sports and the National Defensive Coordinator of the Year by 247Sports and FootballScoop.com.

THREE-AND-OUT –

• The Spartans forced their opponents to go three-and-out on 72 of 173 possessions (42 percent; 5.1 per game), which ranked 10th in the nation. The Spartans forced an average of 5.1 three-and-outs per game, which ranked 15th in the FBS. [Three-and-out: either holding opponent without a first down within its first three plays on a new series or forcing a turnover in the first three plays.]

INSIDE THE NUMBERS –

• Michigan State won its eight Big Ten regular-season games by an average margin of victory of 18.8 points per game. MSU won every Big Ten game by double digits (closest game: 14-3 victory vs. Minnesota). The Spartans were the first Big Ten team to win all eight of their conference games by double-digit points since the league went to an eight-game schedule in 1971. In addition, MSU became the first undefeated Big Ten team to win all of its league games by double-figure points since Michigan in 1943 (6-0 record).

• Michigan State finished its Big Ten schedule with a perfect 8-0 record for the first time in school history. MSU became the 14th Big Ten team to post an 8-0 mark in league play (Ohio State 2013, Ohio State 2006, Ohio State 2002, Iowa 2002, Michigan 1997, Northwestern 1995, Penn State 1994, Michigan 1989, Illinois 1983 [9 games], Michigan 1980, Ohio State 1979, Ohio State 1975, Michigan 1971).

• Dantonio has always stressed the importance of a balanced offense, and the 2013 Spartans couldn't have been more balanced statistically. MSU had 23 rushing touchdowns and 23 passing touchdowns, and averaged 173.8 yards per game rushing and 211.7 yards per game passing. Thirteen different offensive players scored TDs for MSU in 2013.

• Michigan State outscored its opponents, 212-72 (+140), in the second half in 2013, including 112-30 (+82 points) in the fourth quarter.

• Under Mark Dantonio, Michigan State has compiled a 49-8 record (.860) when leading after three quarters, including a perfect 11-0 in 2013.

• Michigan State is 19-9 (.679) in Big Ten road games under Dantonio, including a six-game winning streak and a 13-3 record (.813) since 2010. MSU went a perfect 4-0 in conference road games in 2013 (wins at Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska and Northwestern). Dantonio has won at least one road game at every Big Ten stadium.

• A trademark of Mark Dantonio's Michigan State teams has been their ability to produce wins late in the regular season. Under Dantonio, Michigan State has compiled an 18-5 record (.783) in November. His teams have won 12 of the last 14 games in November (3-0 in 2010; 4-0 in 2011; 1-2 in 2012, 4-0 in 2013). In 2012, MSU lost back-to-back games (Nebraska and Northwestern) in November for the first time since 2006 when the Spartans dropped three in a row. In the four seasons (2003-06) prior to Dantonio's arrival, MSU went just 2-11 (.154) in November.

• Michigan State's offensive line allowed 17 sacks (1.21 per game), which ranked second fewest in the Big Ten and 15th in the NCAA FBS. The offensive line featured seven players with starting experience (152 combined starts).

• The Spartans produced 50 plays of 20 yards or more on offense (15 rushing, 35 passing) in their last 10 games (5.6 per game), compared to just 11 (five rushing, six passing) during their four non-conference games (2.3 pg.).

• Under Mark Dantonio, Michigan State is 47-8 (.855) when leading in time of possession, including a 34-5 record (.872) since 2010. The Spartans ranked second in the Big Ten and seventh in the NCAA FBS in time of possession (33:19 per game) in 2013.

• Michigan State outrushed its opponents by 87.2 yards per game (173.8 to 86.6). Under Mark Dantonio, Michigan State is 50-11 (.820) when outrushing its opponent, including a 34-4 record (.895) since 2010. The Spartans are 20-3 (.870) in games when gaining 200 or more rushing yards under Dantonio.

• Under Mark Dantonio, Michigan State has produced a 38-11 record (.776) in home games, including a 15-game winning streak (7-0 in 2010, 7-0 in 2011, won first game in 2012). MSU completed its 19th undefeated home season in Spartan Stadium history with a 7-0 mark in 2013.

• Since the beginning of the 2010 season, Michigan State is 15-7 (.682) in games decided by 10 points or less. The losses have come against Wisconsin in the 2011 Big Ten Championship Game (42-39), Ohio State (17-16), Iowa (19-16 in 2OT), Michigan (12-10), Nebraska (28-24) and Northwestern (23-20) in 2012, and Notre Dame (17-13) in 2013.

ANALYSTS SPEAK HIGHLY OF SPARTAN FOOTBALL PROGRAM –
While the focus of the NFL Scouting Combine is on the rookie class for the upcoming NFL Draft in May, msuspartans.com also had a chance to visit with several media members from around the country in Indianapolis about the state of the Spartan football program

Bill Polian, ESPN analyst and former Indianapolis Colts president/general manager
On the staff at Michigan State...
"When you talk about the top coaches in America, Mark Dantonio is in that group. From the NFL standpoint, Michigan State is a place that you like to get kids from because: A) they're disciplined; B) they've been in a program that is as demanding as the NFL; and C) their training is so good, particularly on the defensive side of the ball, that they're ready to play when they come right in because they're used to NFL techniques. They play press coverage; they play multiple coverages; they pattern match; and their techniques and fundamentals are so sound. There's a reason why they've won as many games as they have, and there's a reason why they turn out as many NFL players as they do because Mark and his staff do such a great job of running a program that's about as close to the NFL as you can find at the college level."

On Michigan State's ability to develop NFL talent...
"It says two things. First, they're tracking the right kids. They have good personnel judgment. It doesn't matter what we say in the media. It's what you see in the player, so they're getting players who have the ability to play in the NFL. It's just that they're not recognized by the recruiting services. So good for them, that's to their benefit.

"And secondly, they get them ready to play in the NFL. They take the raw talent that they get - perhaps, not highly visible when they first come to Michigan State - and then they develop them into guys who are ready to play the minute they step into the National Football League. But the most important part is that they're recognizing that talent. If you translated that to the NFL, they've got one of the best personnel departments in all of college football because that's what causes you to win all of these games. Getting those collegiate free agents, getting those low draft choices that's the equivalent of what they're recruiting at the college level, and they're hitting on virtually every one of them."

Mike Mayock, NFL Network
On the Spartan football program...
"(Michigan State is) a top-level team. They're a top-level program, and the facilities are fantastic. Coach (Mark Dantonio) has done a great job.

"One of my favorite games of the year was Michigan State-Stanford. That was two well-coached, tough teams that got after each other. It was a testament to Coach Dantonio and his staff how well they played and how tough they were. I always know when I put a Michigan State tape in I'm going to see a well-coached, disciplined group of kids. I like putting Michigan State tapes on to compare other Big Ten players when I'm getting ready for the draft. I purposely put Michigan State film in there because I want to see how they hang in there for 60 minutes after being grinded on by Michigan State."

Bruce Feldman, senior college football columnist for CBSSports.com
On winning the last two games of the season against No. 2 Ohio State and No. 5 Stanford...
"That was a big statement for (Michigan State). Everybody was watching Ohio State to see what they did and there was the Auburn dynamic playing into it. The way Michigan State closed out that (Big Ten Championship Game) was really impressive. Being at the Rose Bowl and the way they finished out (the Stanford game), I think it elevated the brand a lot. Michigan State was a very well respected Big Ten program, but after last year, I feel like it pushed the brand national to a large degree because of Ohio State game and the performance in the Rose Bowl."

On Michigan State's defense...
"People know the names change on defense, but they play great football. They shut people down; they shut the run down; and they've got a unique scheme. What's a little different here now is the quarterback situation and I know Kirk Cousins was a terrific quarterback, but I felt like after Kirk it was like `hey, what's going on here.' Once Connor (Cook) got settled, the team took off. It's going to be interesting to see what he's going to do moving forward."

On if Michigan State become a regular contender for a Big Ten West Division title?
"I think so. You know they're going to be really good on defense, and they're going to be really physical. You lose some starters on the offensive line, but there's so much experience and depth back across the board. That's a big key. Getting more of an identity at quarterback on offense helps. And if you play great defense, you're going to be in a lot of games."

On the player development at Michigan State...
"What is helping now is kids are seeing that they can go to Michigan State and know they're going to be developed. We're here (at the NFL Scouting Combine) and Darqueze Dennard is a great story, not only for Michigan State fans, but he's a great story for under-the-radar recruits. He was the 2-star guy and that 2-star guy was the best defensive back in college football (last season). There are other guys like that.

"A few years ago, you lose a great middle linebacker and four or five of your top tacklers and somehow the defense gets better. The Shilique Calhoun story is another example kids see. It helps when people know your head coach is just a really good football guy. He's not flashy. He's not a slick-salesman type; he's just a real football guy. That seems like the brand of Michigan State. We've seen it in other programs, like Stanford. Physical football is in their DNA physical football and kids eventually buy into. That's now what's going on with Michigan State."

Charles Davis, NFL Network and FOX Sports
On Michigan State's 2013 season...
"It's hard to believe anyone was (playing better football than Michigan State at the end of last season). You'd have to say Florida State because they won the National Championship and the way Auburn finished the year, but Michigan State would not have backed down from anyone. Michigan State would have gleefully accepted any challenge and it would have been fun. A Michigan State-Florida State match-up would have been a blast because the teams play similar styles in a lot of ways. You know both want to be physical and both run.

"Michigan State runs better than what people give them credit for. Getting into that type of a game when you get into the fourth quarter and make the other team sweat, that would have been a fun one because Michigan State is very comfortable in that type of a situation."

On the state of the MSU program...
"What Mark Dantonio and his staff have done with that program, they're at the level now that it's a surprise if they're not contending (for a championship), as witnessed two seasons ago when the team finished 7-6. You're like what happened to Michigan State? And then they came back this season and all of a sudden, it was pound Green pound again and off they went.

"The beauty of it is Mark Dantonio had a vision. He has a formula for what he wants done. He believes in it and doesn't deviate from it. A lot of guys after a 7-6 year go `oh, we've got to change everything. This has to go and this didn't work.' No, they took a step back and took a deep breath. Okay, this didn't happen here, and this didn't happen here. And by the way, out of our losses, most of them were pretty close. So we're just missing a little bit of a piece.

"Then the way he managed the quarterback situation last year where kids still felt valuable even though they weren't getting the job. That was masterful because you know as well as I know when a quarterback doesn't get a job now what does he do? I'm outta here. I'm going to transfer. I'm gone because I can't play here. They're all hanging around, trying to do their best. He's built the program for the long haul by building it on his principles, on his character, and on his integrity. Phenomenal job."

Jim Miller, Sirius/XM NFL analyst
On the Michigan State program...
"No. 1, (I'm impressed with) how they go to work every week. Every week is a big challenge and Mark Dantonio and his staff do a great job getting the team focused. Early in the season, it looked like there was a lot of uncertainty. The team could have fractured and gone in a different direction, but they got close-knit, tightened it up. They focused on the task at hand, and they got it done. So I was extremely proud of the Michigan State Spartans last year."

On the end of the 2013 season...
"Obviously when you knock off a team that's undefeated (Ohio State), Michigan State showed a lot of backbone; a lot of grit. I think they were a tougher team, but the bottom line is they earned it. They knew what they were working for and it was something bigger. Ohio State was in the way, and they got it done. That was a big challenge but even after taking care of Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game, there was no let down. The team stayed focused; they stayed on a high and got their energies focused toward Stanford in the Rose Bowl. It was a goal that was accomplished, but make no mistake about it, Michigan State earned it every bit of the way."

On MSU's defense...

"It says a lot about their coaching style. No. 1, they run a great scheme. Pat Narduzzi is one of the better defensive coordinators in all of college football and that's why he's been getting a lot interest whether it's through pro teams or other college programs. It's about being able to communicate to the players each week the game plan - what needs to be executed to win a game. And for 14 weeks of the season, Michigan State's defense was ranked No. 1. That says it all about the job the coaches have done at Michigan State and for the players for going out and getting it done."

On MSU's recruiting...

"The coaches do a great job of recruiting players around the country. No. 1, they don't look for stars. You always hear about these five-star and four-star recruits, but you recruit the individual. You recruit the kid that's going to fit your program the best and represent Michigan State football the best. It's hard to identify heart. It's hard to identify toughness. Those are intangibles that are sometimes unscoutable. Michigan State does a great job identifying the type of player that they want to represent its program."

On MSU's player development...

"It says a lot about the coaching staff because they maximize the talent since Mark Dantonio has been there. I go back to Kellen Davis when he played both defensive end and tight end. Here's Jeremy Langford: they're trying to find him a position. Is he a receiver? Is he a cornerback? They have some depth issues at running back, and what does Jeremy Langford do, he takes off and has a great season. He had a couple of great 100-yard rushing games. He ran tough; he ran with grit and again he earned it. You have to give the kid a lot of credit because he's a great athlete and he finally found a home as the starting running back. So again, you credit the coaches for identifying talent and you credit Jeremy Langford for not giving up, not quitting when he really didn't have a position to settle in at."

WINNINGEST SENIOR CLASS IN MSU HISTORY –

• The 2013 senior class helped Michigan State to a record of 42-12 (.778) since 2010, including four consecutive winning seasons. The 42 wins are the most by any senior class in the 117-year history of Michigan State football (previous record: 37 wins by 2011 class). The 2013 senior class became the winningest class at MSU with the 41-28 win over Nebraska on Nov. 16.

DANTONIO SWEEPS BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR HONORS –

• Seventh-year Michigan State head coach Mark Dantonio swept Big Ten Coach of the Year honors by winning both the Dave McClain Coach of the Year (media) and Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year (coaches). Since the award's inception in 1972, Dantonio is the first Spartan coach to earn Dave McClain Coach of the Year honors twice. He also won the award in 2010 after leading MSU to an 11-1 regular-season record and a share of the Big Ten Championship.

• Dantonio also was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year, Bobby Bowden Coach of the Year and Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year. In addition, he was named one of 16 semifinalists for the Maxwell Football Club Coach of the Year and was tabbed Big Ten Coach of the Year by Sporting News and CollegeFootballNews.com.

• Dantonio owns a 64-29 (.688) record at Michigan State. He already ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in career wins (fourth) and winning percentage (fifth).

• Among Spartan coaches who have coached at least 10 Big Ten games, Dantonio owns the best winning percentage (.679, 38-18 record). "Biggie" Munn went 5-1 in his only Big Ten season in 1953.

• Dantonio has three double-digit win seasons (2010, 2011, 2013), which is the most in school history. He also has four nine-win seasons at MSU, the most by any coach in school history (9 in 2008, 11 in 2010, 11 in 2011, 11 in 2013); "Biggie" Munn (1951, 1952, 1953) and Duffy Daugherty (1955, 1965, 1966) each had three nine-win seasons at MSU.

• Since 2007, Dantonio has helped produce 26 first-team All-Big Ten selections, five consensus First-Team All-Americans (2008: RB Javon Ringer; 2009-10: LB Greg Jones; 2011: DT Jerel Worthy; and 2013: CB Darqueze Dennard) and 16 NFL Draft picks, including six in 2012. It marked the most NFL Draft selections for the Spartans since seven players were taken in 2000.

• From his first day on the job, Dantonio has pledged to support student-athletes as they pursue excellence, both in the classroom and on the playing field. In his first six seasons, more than 80 percent (98 of 123) of his Michigan State players who have completed their eligibility have earned their undergraduate degrees. In addition, 87 Spartans have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, including six Academic All-Americans (Blair White, 2009 second team; Mike Sadler, 2013 first team, 2012 second team, 2011 second team; Max Bullough, 2013 first team, 2012 second team).

• Under Mark Dantonio, Michigan State has produced a 38-11 record (.776) in home games, including a 15-game winning streak (7-0 in 2010, 7-0 in 2011, won first game in 2012). The Spartans have won 23 of their last 28 home games.

• Dantonio has led Michigan State to Top 25 finishes in four of the last six seasons (2008: No. 24 in both polls; 2010: No. 14 in both polls; 2011: No. 10 USA TODAY/No. 11 AP; and 2013: No. 3 in both polls).

• Dantonio was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2010 after leading the Spartans to a share of the Big Ten Championship and a school-record 11 wins. He was also selected the National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com, Scout.com and CBSSports.com, and was named a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant, Eddie Robinson and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year Awards. In 2008, Dantonio was named one of 15 finalists for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award after leading MSU to a 9-3 regular-season mark.

ALWAYS A CROWD FAVORITE –

• Michigan State has ranked among the NCAA's Top 25 in attendance each of the last 58 seasons, including No. 20 in 2013, averaging 72,328 fans per game. The Spartans ranked No. 19 in the NCAA FBS in total attendance as 506,294 fans went through the turnstiles for seven home games.

SPARTAN STADIUM NORTH END ZONE PROJECT INFORMATION –

• The past two years, $34.5 million has been committed to upgrading Spartan Stadium to continually enhance the gameday atmosphere.

• In June 2013, the Michigan State Board of Trustees approved a $24.5 million project to the north end of Spartan Stadium that will feature a two-story, 50,000-square-foot addition as well as an entrance plaza, renovated gates, and additional restrooms and concessions.

• The building will include new locker rooms for teams, coaches and officials, including a 4,500-square-foot home locker room and a 700-square-foot home training room, in addition to a 3,600-square-foot media center and a 4,000-square-foot recruiting lounge for all varsity sports. The project is scheduled to be completed in July 2014.

• Prior to the 2012 season, new high-def Panasonic video screens and scoreboards as well as a new sound system were installed in Spartan Stadium. The new scoreboard/video screen in the south end zone is 5,300-square feet, compared to its predecessor that measured just 567-square feet (installed in 1998). The top of the new south end zone structure reaches 130 feet. In addition, two new video boards as well as an LED ribbon board were added to the north end zone. The LED ribbon board covers 4,500 square feet (450-feet long and 10-feet high). Combined, the south and north video screens/scoreboards total 13,300-square feet. The $10 million project replaced a 14-year-old scoreboard, message board and audio system.

GAME 1 • MICHIGAN STATE 26, WESTERN MICHIGAN 13

Game 1 | Michigan State 26, Western Michigan 13
Aug. 30, 2013 • East Lansing, Mich.
Spartan Stadium • Att: 71,214

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4		F
Western Michigan (0-1)	0	7	0	6	-	13
Michigan State (1-0)	7	6	6	7	-	26

WHAT HAPPENED
• Michigan State's defense held Western Michigan to 193 yards of total offense and forced four turnovers, including two defensive touchdowns, in the 26-13 season-opening win.

KEY STAT
• Michigan State limited Western Michigan to 11 yards rushing on 27 attempts.

KEY PLAY
• On third-and-11 from the WMU 20-yard line midway through the first quarter, Jairus Jones recorded his first career interception and lateraled the ball to Kurtis Drummond, who ran it in 21 yards for a touchdown.

QUOTABLE
"The thing to talk about here is the defense - I thought they played extremely well. We need to dwell on those positives and build on them. We need to always play to our strengths, period. I'll go back to what I said, the name of the game is to win. We've got to do this collectively, together. Am I totally happy, no, but I'll go home with a win."
- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE
• Michigan State extended its winning streak in home openers to 15.

RECAP
EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Jeremy Langford's 2-yard touchdown run late in the first half broke a tie and he finished with 94 yards rushing, helping Michigan State beat Western Michigan 26-13. The Spartans scored two touchdowns on defense. Jairus Jones had two interceptions, the first of which turned into a score with his lateral to Kurtis Drummond, whose 21-yard return was the game's first score midway through the first quarter. The Broncos tied the game with 6:14 left in the second quarter, but couldn't do enough on offense to keep the game close in coach P.J. Fleck's debut with the Mid-American Conference team. Langford's go-ahead TD was followed up by two field goals in the third quarter and Shilique Calhoun's fumble return with 9:02 left to play that made it 26-7.

Kurtis Drummond celebrates with his teammates in the end zone following his 21-yard return for a touchdown in the first quarter.

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4		F
South Florida (0-2)	0	6	0	0	-	6
Michigan State (2-0)	0	7	7	7	-	21

WHAT HAPPENED

• For the second consecutive game, Michigan State's defense dominated its opponent, scoring two touchdowns and limiting South Florida to just 155 yards of total offense, including only 66 passing yards.

KEY STAT

• Michigan State forced USF to eight three-and-out possessions and limited the Bulls to just 2.5 yards per offensive play.

KEY PLAY

• With MSU leading 7-6 midway through the third quarter and South Florida driving in Spartan territory on second-and-15 from the MSU 39, Denicos Allen hit USF quarterback Bobby Eveld as he was throwing, forcing the ball up in the air; Shilique Calhoun picked off the pass for his first career interception, and ran it back 56 yards for the touchdown, giving MSU a 14-6 advantage.

QUOTABLE

"Through camp we discussed being able to score on defense. Even if our offense is good, even if they are doing great, we just wanted to make that another aspect of our game to be able to score on defense. Being able to create touchdowns, we were very excited for the challenge and we were looking forward to it. To see it all play out after all that practice is mind blowing; it is a great feeling definitely."

- MSU defensive end Shilique Calhoun, after scoring two TDs vs. USF

KEY NOTE

• Shilique Calhoun became the first Spartan defensive player to score three touchdowns in one season since linebacker T.J. Turner in 1999.

RECAP

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Shilique Calhoun scored on a fumble return and an interception return, enabling Michigan State to a 21-6 victory over South Florida. The Spartans rotated Connor Cook, Tyler O'Connor and Andrew Maxwell at quarterback, but their offense contributed only one touchdown. USF quarterback Bobby Eveld was 6 of 25 for 66 yards with a fumble and an interception. Michigan State's offense finally scored in the fourth quarter when Jeremy Langford ran 2 yards for a touchdown. That drive was only 33 yards after a short South Florida punt.

Shilique Calhoun returned an interception 56 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter to give MSU a 14-6 lead over South Florida. Calhoun scored two defensive TDs vs. USF.

GAME 3 • MICHIGAN STATE 55, YOUNGSTOWN STATE 17

Game 3 | Michigan State 55, Youngstown State 17
Sept. 14, 2013 • East Lansing, Mich.
Spartan Stadium • Att: 71,626

WHAT HAPPENED

• Michigan State equaled the most points it has scored under head coach Mark Dantonio with 55 as the Spartans totaled a season-high 547 yards of total offense in the 55-17 victory over Youngstown State.

KEY STAT

• The Spartans collected 547 yards of total offense - the fifth most under head coach Mark Dantonio - in their best offensive effort since racking up 602 yards of total offense vs. Western Michigan in 2009.

KEY PLAY

• With MSU leading 28-10 late in the second quarter, senior wide receiver Bennie Fowler all but iced the game with a 17-yard touchdown reception from Connor Cook with 1:50 left in the first half to put MSU up 35-10. It marked Connor Cook's fourth TD of the first half.

QUOTABLE

"I thought today we obviously got great play from our offense. The most impressive thing to me was that we made those 50-50 catches - those catches that are difficult to make. We made them in crowds with people hanging on you. I thought (Connor) Cook played well. He ran the ball effectively and controlled things. I thought he threw the ball really well."
- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Connor Cook tied a Michigan State record with four first-half touchdown passes. The four TDs overall tied for second most by a Spartan quarterback.

RECAP

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Connor Cook threw four touchdown passes in the first half, and the Michigan State offense finally looked smooth in a 55-17 victory over Youngstown State. Cook went 15 of 22 for 202 yards before being replaced by Tyler O'Connor early in the third quarter. Michigan State needed one of its quarterbacks to show progress after the defense accounted for four of the team's six touchdowns in the first two games. Cook started and led Michigan State to a 35-10 halftime lead.

Connor Cook tied a Michigan State record with four first-half touchdown passes in the Spartans' 55-17 win over Youngstown State.

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4		F
Michigan State (3-1)	0	7	3	3	-	13
Notre Dame (3-1)	3	7	0	7	-	17

WHAT HAPPENED

• Although being outgained and outrushed, Notre Dame held off Michigan State, 17-13, to record its third consecutive win in the series.

KEY STAT

• Michigan State, which entered the game No. 1 in the NCAA FBS in total defense, allowed just 224 total yards of offense to the Irish, the fewest in the Brian Kelly era at Notre Dame; it was the fewest total yards by Notre Dame since it had just 91 in a loss to USC on Nov. 29, 2008.

KEY PLAY

• With the score tied at 10, Notre Dame faced a third-and-10 from the MSU 22 yardline on the first play of the fourth quarter. The Spartans were flagged for their fourth pass interference of the game on the play, setting up first-and-goal for the Irish. Two plays later, Cam McDaniel scored on a 7-yard TD run to put Notre Dame up for good, 17-10.

QUOTABLE

"Great football game, first of all. I thought very well played football game in terms of intensity and enthusiasm. As far as Michigan State is concerned, get down in the red zone, you've got to score touchdowns. Fact of the matter is they did not turn the ball over and we had to come up with turnovers. We ran the ball effectively. Had our opportunities in the red zone. Kicked a couple field goals, missed one. You've got to score touchdowns in those situations."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Ten of the last 10 meetings between Michigan State and Notre Dame have been decided by seven points or less.

RECAP

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP) - Notre Dame took advantage of a trick play that backfired, as well as four pass interference calls and a holding penalty that kept drives alive, to defeat Michigan State for the third straight time. The mistakes led to all of Notre Dame's points in the 17-13 victory, including two on the game-winning drive after a pass by Michigan State receiver R.J. Shelton led to an interception by safety Matthias Farley, setting up the go-ahead touchdown.

Michigan State's defense limited Notre Dame to just 224 yards of total offense, the fewest in the Brian Kelly era.

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4		F
Michigan State (4-1, 1-0)	0	10	10	6	-	26
Iowa (4-2, 0-1)	0	14	0	0	-	14

WHAT HAPPENED

• Down 14-10 at halftime, Michigan State rallied in the second half, outscoring Iowa 16-0 in the final two quarters to win its Big Ten opener, 26-14.

KEY STAT

• On 14 Iowa possessions, MSU's defense forced 10 three-and-outs (three-and-out: either holding an opponent without a first down within three plays on a new series or forcing a turnover in the first three plays). The Hawkeyes were held to just 23 yards rushing.

KEY PLAY

• On Michigan State's first drive of the third quarter, trailing 14-10, Connor Cook threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to Bennie Fowler that put the Spartans ahead for good.

QUOTABLE

"We've been thinking about our last game, how to strengthen ourselves, re-evaluating ourselves as a football team and we came out and played. We kept talking about how you're going to have adversity here and basically have to just flood the gates. We were tough to run the ball against, maybe that was an understatement, and we came up with two big turnovers at the right times. Just a solid team win."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Michigan State's 26-14 win over Iowa gave the Spartans back-to-back victories in Iowa City for the first time since 1987 and 1989. MSU snapped a seven-game losing streak in Iowa City with a 37-21 victory in 2011.

RECAP

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Connor Cook threw for 277 yards and two touchdowns and Michigan State opened Big Ten play with a 26-14 win over Iowa. Darqueze Dennard had a pair of interceptions for the Spartans, who held the Hawkeyes scoreless in the second half. Freshman Michael Geiger added three field goals in the second half for the Spartans. Mark Weisman ran for just 9 yards on seven carries for the Hawkeyes, who lost for the first time since its season opener. Michigan State was again led by its standout defense. But the Spartans also came up huge on special teams. Up 6 early in the fourth quarter, Michigan State pulled off a crucial fake punt. Mike Sadler ran for 25 yards, setting up a 49-yard field goal by Geiger that put the Spartans up 23-14 with 13:28 left.

Jake Rudock threw for 241 yards and two touchdowns for the Hawkeyes. But Dennard picked him off twice, including an interception with 5:09 left that largely ended the suspense.

Darqueze Dennard was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week after tying his career high with two interceptions and collecting a career-best eight tackles in the win at Iowa.

GAME 6 • MICHIGAN STATE 42, INDIANA 28

Game 6 | Michigan State 42, Indiana 28
Oct. 12, 2013 • East Lansing, Mich.
Spartan Stadium • Att: 73,185

WHAT HAPPENED

• Junior running back Jeremy Langford recorded his first career 100-yard rushing game with 23 carries for 109 yards in MSU's 42-28 win over Indiana on Homecoming at Spartan Stadium. Langford accounted for a career-best four touchdowns, including three scoring runs against the Hoosiers.

KEY STAT

• Michigan State limited Indiana to season lows in passing offense (259 yards) and total offense (351). The Hoosiers entered the game ranked ninth in the nation in total offense (535.0 ypg.) and 10th in passing offense (346.0 ypg).

KEY PLAY

• With Michigan State leading 28-21, Jeremy Langford broke free from several tacklers at the line of scrimmage and busted loose for a 32-yard touchdown run, putting the Spartans on top 35-21 with 3:23 left to play in the third quarter.

QUOTABLE

"We sort of characterized this game as an iron man lift. If you know anything about Spartan football, we have iron man lifts for our younger players at 5:30 a.m. Everybody in our football program has to go through that. We felt like that's what it was going to be - you are going to be challenged (playing against Indiana's up-tempo offense), you were going to have adversity, you're going to be pushed to the brink. I think overall it's a good team win for us. We're 5-1 and we can set the tone for the next phase. We're halfway through the season. Now we start playing for things."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Spartan Stadium played host to its 500th game, as Michigan State improved its all-time home record to 340-147-13 (.693) in 90 seasons. The Spartans also retained the Old Brass Spittoon, as MSU defeated Indiana for the fifth-straight time.

RECAP

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Jeremy Langford scored four touchdowns, and Michigan State recovered from an early defensive breakdown to beat Indiana 42-28. The Spartans prevailed in a matchup between their top-ranked defense and Indiana's fast-paced offense. Tevin Coleman scored on a 64-yard run for the Hoosiers just 61 seconds into the game, but Michigan State took control shortly after halftime. Langford tied it early in the second quarter, catching an 11-yard touchdown pass from Connor Cook on third down. He later added three more TDs on the ground, becoming the first Michigan State player to score four in a game since Edwin Baker in 2010 against Minnesota.

Jeremy Langford was named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week after scoring four touchdowns (three rushing, one receiving) and rushing for 109 yards on 23 carries against Indiana.

Purdue (1-6, 0-3)	0	0	0	0	-	0
Michigan State (6-1, 3-0)	0	7	0	7	-	14

WHAT HAPPENED
• Michigan State recorded its first shutout over a Big Ten opponent since 1999, defeating the Boilermakers, 14-0, for its fifth-straight win in the series.

KEY STAT
• Michigan State limited Purdue to three first downs, 7 rushing yards (10 carries) and 113 total yards in the second half.

KEY PLAY
• With the game scoreless in the second quarter, Max Bullough recorded a 7-yard sack on Purdue quarterback Danny Etling that produced a fumble, which senior Denicos Allen then recovered and returned 45 yards for a touchdown with 10:17 left in the first half.

QUOTABLE
"We knew it was on us. We told each other it was on us. If they don't score, we win. It was as simple as that. We had no choice but to step it up. Last year in the close games, we would sometimes give up touchdowns at the end of the game. We didn't want to do that this year. It's a new year. It's a new team and we needed to make changes. That was the main change we wanted to make this year."

- MSU fifth-year senior linebacker Denicos Allen

KEY NOTE
• Michigan State shut out Purdue for just the fourth time in series history and for the first time since 1963.

RECAP
EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Denicos Allen returned a fumble 45 yards for a touchdown, and Michigan State's offense finally added an insurance score in the fourth quarter of a 14-0 win over Purdue. The Spartans didn't make it past the Purdue 32-yard line until the fourth quarter, when receiver Tony Lippett threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Andrew Gleichert on a trick play. Purdue kept it close after being routed by Wisconsin and Nebraska in its first two conference games, but Paul Griggs missed two field goals. The Spartans entered with the nation's top-ranked defense, and Allen opened the scoring in the second quarter with Michigan State's fifth defensive touchdown of the season. Max Bullough hit quarterback Danny Etling, the ball popped free, and Allen was able to scoop it up and score easily. Jeremy Langford rushed for 131 yards on 24 carries for Michigan State. While the Spartans were sputtering offensively, punter Mike Sadler gave them a lift, landing three punts inside the 10-yard line.

Max Bullough sacked Purdue quarterback Danny Etling and forced a fumble in the second quarter, which was then recovered and returned by Denicos Allen 45 yards for a Spartan touchdown. Bullough also recorded a season-high 10 tackles.

GAME 8 • MICHIGAN STATE 42, ILLINOIS 3

Game 8 | Michigan State 42, Illinois 3
Oct. 26, 2013 • Champaign, Ill.
Memorial Stadium • Att: 45,895

WHAT HAPPENED
• Michigan State scored 42 unanswered points and compiled 477 yards of total offense in dominating Illinois, 42-3, to win its seventh-straight game in Memorial Stadium.

KEY STAT
• Sophomore quarterback Connor Cook set a school record for single-game completion percentage (.938), as he connected on 15 of his 16 passes for 208 yards and three touchdowns; he finished the game with 11 straight completions.

KEY PLAY
• With Michigan State leading 7-3 midway through the second quarter, the Spartans stuffed Illinois on fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line; MSU proceeded to drive the ball 99 yards on 15 plays for a touchdown, using 8:08 on the clock, to go up 14-3 before the half.

QUOTABLE
"We've played very well away from home really since 2010. Our guys sort of come together, and we are confident when we go away. It talks to team chemistry I think and good things happen when you have team chemistry. It wasn't as easy as the score would indicate. The first half was definitely in question and you have to credit Illinois with that, too. You know things can flow and momentum has a way of shifting and creating a lot things for a team."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE
• Michigan State held Illinois to just 128 yards of total offense, a season low for a Spartan opponent and the fewest given up by MSU since Minnesota had 96 yards of total offense on Nov. 24, 2012. MSU allowed 53 yards to Illinois on the Illini's first drive, which resulted in a field goal; the rest of the game, the Spartans gave up just 75 yards. Illinois had just 18 yards of total offense and one first down in the second half.

RECAP
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) - Connor Cook threw for three touchdowns and Michigan State's defense locked down Illinois on the way to a 42-3 win. Cook finished 15-of-16 for 208 yards, setting a Michigan State record for completion percentage. Tailback Jeremy Langford had 104 yards on 22 carries and two touchdowns for the Spartans. The Michigan State defense came into the game ranked first in the nation in total defense at 228 yards a game, and looked even better Saturday, holding Illinois to just 128.

Connor Cook completed 15-of-16 passes for 208 yards and three TDs at Illinois, setting a Michigan State single-game record for completion percentage (.938).

Michigan State (8-1, 5-0)	3	10	3	13	-	29

WHAT HAPPENED

• Michigan State scored 23 unanswered points to defeat Michigan, 29-6, in the largest margin of victory for the Spartans over the Wolverines since 1967. It marked MSU's fifth win in the last six meetings against Michigan.

KEY STAT

• The Spartans recorded seven sacks and 11 tackles for loss in limiting the Wolverines to minus-48 yards rushing - the lowest single-game rushing total in U-M history. It also marked the fewest rushing yards allowed by MSU under head coach Mark Dantonio and tied for the third fewest allowed in school history (school record -63 rushing yards by Pittsburgh in 1960; -60 rushing yards by Pittsburgh in 1981; -48 rushing yards by Northwestern in 1983).

KEY PLAY

• With the scored tied at 6 late in the second quarter, Connor Cook capped a 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 14-yard pass to Bennie Fowler in the back, right corner of the end zone with 23 seconds left in the first half that gave MSU the lead for good over the Wolverines.

QUOTABLE

"A lot of passion goes into this football game...We talked all week about keeping the lion in the cage, just peaking at game time. Don't worry about all the things that are being said, just keep your mouth shut, get ready to play, start the game and finish stronger than when you started. We were going to let the lion out of the cage at 3:30 and that's what happened. We got stronger as the game continued."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Michigan State held Michigan without a touchdown for the second consecutive season.

RECAP

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Mark Dantonio has always embraced Michigan State's rivalry with Michigan, but this week the confident coach took a fairly calm approach. Dantonio's Spartans battered their biggest rivals for the full 60 minutes Saturday, and 24th-ranked Michigan State remained unbeaten in the Big Ten with a 29-6 victory over the 23rd-ranked Wolverines. Michigan was sacked seven times and finished with minus-48 yards rushing, the worst output in the Ann Arbor program's lengthy history. Connor Cook threw for a touchdown and ran for one, but this game belonged to Michigan State's defense, which solidified its spot among the nation's best with an overwhelming performance on a rainy afternoon at Spartan Stadium. Shilique Calhoun and Ed Davis had 2 1/2 sacks each, and Denicos Allen added two more.

Denicos Allen was named the National Defensive Player of the Week after recording nine tackles, including three for losses with two sacks, against Michigan.

GAME 10 • NO. 14/16 MICHIGAN STATE 41, NEBRASKA 28

Game 10 | Michigan State 41, Nebraska 28
Nov. 16, 2013 • Lincoln, Neb.
Memorial Stadium • Att: 90,872

WHAT HAPPENED

• For the first time in eight meetings, Michigan State defeated Nebraska, 41-28. The win clinched a share of the Big Ten Legends Division title for the Spartans.

KEY STAT

• Michigan State forced five Nebraska turnovers, the most caused by the Spartans in the Coach Mark Dantonio era (fumble recovery by Shilique Calhoun in first quarter; interception by Kurtis Drummond in first quarter; fumble recovery by Taybor Pepper in first quarter; fumble recovery by Isaiah Lewis in second quarter; fumble recovery by Trae Waynes in third quarter). MSU converted those five turnovers into 24 points.

KEY PLAY

• With MSU leading 27-21 midway through the fourth quarter, Spartan placekicker Michael Geiger lined up for a 45-yard field goal to put MSU up two scores; however, holder Mike Sadler pulled off the fake field goal by gaining 3 yards on the ground up the middle for a first down. Later on the drive, Connor Cook found Keith Mumphery for a 27-yard touchdown pass to give MSU a 35-21 advantage.

QUOTABLE

"We have played for a championship in 2008 at the end of the season, 2010, 2011 and now 2013, we will have a chance to play for a championship. On the last game of the season, any way you cut it, it is a Legends Championship, any way you cut it. Those are positives, those are big positive steps for a program from when we came here. It shows we have a solid foundation but we need to continue to coach, and play and play up and continue to climb the latter. You want to be where we are at, at the end of the season. I think it was a statement for a lot of people, for recruits and for everybody else."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• The 2013 senior class won its 38th game since 2010 (38-12) to become the winningest senior class in the 117-year history of Michigan State football.

RECAP

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) - Michigan State all but locked up a spot in the Big Ten Championship Game, and the Spartans didn't even need their nation-leading defense at its best to do it. With Nebraska turning over the ball five times and Connor Cook directing a game-breaking drive in the fourth quarter, the Spartans won 41-28 to take a two-game lead in the Legends Division with two games to play. Jeremy Langford ran 32 times for 151 yards and scored two touchdowns, and Keith Mumphery caught a 27-yard touchdown from Cook after the Cornhuskers pulled within six points.

Jeremy Langford recorded career highs in carries (32) and rushing yards (151) and tied a career high with three rushing TDs in MSU's 41-28 win at Nebraska.

Michigan State (10-1, 7-0)	0	14	9	7	-	30
Northwestern (4-7, 0-7)	3	3	0	0	-	6

WHAT HAPPENED

• Michigan State clinched the Big Ten Legends Division title outright for the second time in three years with a 30-6 victory over Northwestern.

KEY STAT

• With the wind chill in single figures, temperatures in the low-20s, and gusts swirling up to 25 mph, Connor Cook completed 16-of-23 passes for 293 yards.

KEY PLAY

• With Michigan State leading 7-3 late in the second quarter, the Spartans had the ball on their own 13-yard line. On third-and-5, Connor Cook found Bennie Fowler down the sideline, who tipped the ball to himself as he slid past two Northwestern defenders, and raced to the end zone for an 87-yard touchdown. It tied for the fourth-longest reception in school history.

QUOTABLE

"I want to congratulate our football team. Ten wins. Legends [Division] champions and as we go forward it's exciting times. We've talked about there being moments that we'd remember for the rest of our lives and I think that's what is happening for us, so we just need to continue and press on...Very happy for our program and everybody associated with it. Like I said, we got a hat on. Hopefully we want to wear this hat for a couple of weeks and we'll trade it in, but we will see. That's what makes things so special."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Jeremy Langford recorded his sixth-straight 100-yard rushing game, a first for a Spartan since Lorenzo White accomplished the feat in seven-straight games in 1985. Langford accounted for 150 rushing yards, a career-high 185 all-purpose yards, and two TDs against the Wildcats.

RECAP

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) - Mark Dantonio and his players wore hats commemorating their division championship. They hope bigger prizes are coming. Connor Cook threw for 293 yards, Jeremy Langford ran for 150, and No. 13 Michigan State clinched a spot in the Big Ten title game with a 30-6 victory over Northwestern. Langford ran 20 yards untouched for the game's first touchdown in the second quarter. He sealed it with a 37-yard scoring run in the fourth after Kurtis Drummond picked off a short pass by Trevor Siemian, sending Michigan State to its seventh straight win and Northwestern to its seventh loss in a row. Drummond had two interceptions, and the Spartans closed in on 11 wins for the third time in four seasons.

Michigan State clinched the Big Ten Legends Division title with a 30-6 win at Northwestern.

WHAT HAPPENED

• Michigan State completed its third perfect Big Ten regular season in program history and the first since the conference expanded to eight games with a 14-3 victory over Minnesota on Senior Day. The 18-member senior class, the winningest in school history, closed their careers with a 23-5 (.821) mark at Spartan Stadium.

KEY STAT

• With an 11-point victory, Michigan State became the first Big Ten team to win all eight of its conference games by double-digit points since the league went to an eight-game schedule in 1971.

KEY PLAY

• With Michigan State leading 14-3 in the fourth quarter, Minnesota drove the ball 77 yards on 17 plays in 9:21 to the Spartan 11-yard line; on third-and-10, Gopher quarterback Mitch Leidner was sacked by Shilique Calhoun and Tyler Hoover popped the ball loose, and Denzel Drone recovered the fumble for MSU at the 14-yard line, ending Minnesota's scoring threat.

QUOTABLE

"We've been here before, we've won 11 games before. It feels good. I don't think there's any question it feels very good. You feel like you've attained a goal. But at the same time, you're right, nobody's giving anyone Gatorade showers. We've got one more to go. That's what we want to do. Those are our goals."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Jeremy Langford rattled off a career-long 44-yard rush late in the fourth quarter to push him past the 100-yard mark for the seventh game in a row, which tied a school record along with Lorenzo White, who accomplished the feat in 1985.

RECAP

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Jeremy Langford ran for 134 yards and a touchdown, and No. 11 Michigan State wrapped up an unbeaten regular season in Big Ten play with a 14-3 victory over Minnesota. The Spartans' top-ranked defense forced three turnovers and kept the Golden Gophers out of the end zone, repeating a formula that has brought Michigan State within a win of the Rose Bowl. The Spartans went undefeated at home for the third time in four years. They took the lead right away Saturday on Langford's 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, which capped a seven-play, 80-yard drive. Minnesota's Philip Nelson attempted only seven passes in the first half, and two of them were picked off by Michigan State's Trae Waynes.

Michigan State completed a perfect 7-0 home season for the third time in the past four years with a 14-3 win over Minnesota on Senior Day.

Michigan State (12-1)	3	14	3	14	-	34

WHAT HAPPENED

• Michigan State snapped Ohio State's school-record 24-game winning streak and defeated the Buckeyes, 34-24, to win the program's eighth Big Ten Championship and seal its first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1988.

KEY STAT

• Ohio State entered the game ranked in the FBS Top 10 in scoring offense and total offense, but the Spartans held the Buckeyes to season lows in points (24) and total yards (374). The Buckeyes were 1-of-10 on third-down conversions and 0-of-2 on fourth down.

KEY PLAY

• With Michigan State leading 27-24 midway through the fourth quarter, Ohio State deflected a punt, and took over at the MSU 47-yard line. After three rushes for 8 yards, the Buckeyes faced a fourth-and-2 at the MSU 39-yard line and called timeout. On the fourth-down play, Denicos Allen stopped OSU quarterback Braxton Miller 1-yard short of the first down, and MSU took over on downs. The Spartans iced the game with a 6-play, 61-yard drive in three minutes and 33 seconds, capped off by Jeremy Langford's 26-yard TD run up the middle.

QUOTABLE

"We're going to live this one for a while, live it for a month. But it's important that we finish what we started and that will end with a bowl game."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Michigan State won its school-record 12th game of the season (11 wins in 2010 and 2011).

RECAP

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) - Connor Cook was determined to shake things up in the Big Ten title game. By the end of the night, the sophomore quarterback's teammates were bouncing up and down right along with him. No. 10 Michigan State rallied from a seven-point third-quarter deficit by scoring the final 17 points to upset No. 2 Ohio State 34-24 and deny the Buckeyes a chance to play for the BCS National Championship. It was a game that almost defied logic. Ohio State came into the game with the nation's longest winning streak (24), had not lost under Meyer in two seasons and had one of the nation's most productive offenses and underrated defenses. Michigan State turned the conventional wisdom upside down by scoring the first 17 points. Then the nation's stingiest defense gave up the next 24 points as Braxton Miller, Carlos Hyde & Co. took command. Cook responded to the challenge by driving the Spartans for a field goal, hooking up with the wide open Josiah Price in the flat of the end zone and then burned 3 1/2 critical minutes on the clinching drive, capped by Jeremy Langford's sealing 26-yard TD run.

The Spartans celebrate following their 34-24 win over No. 2 Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game that sealed MSU's first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1988.

GAME 14 • NO. 4/4 MICHIGAN STATE 24, NO. 5/7 STANFORD 20

Game 14 vs. Stanford (100th Rose Bowl Game)
Jan. 1, 2014 • Pasadena, Calif.
Rose Bowl • Att: 95,173

WHAT HAPPENED

• Michigan State won its first Rose Bowl since 1988 and its fourth in program history with a 24-20 comeback victory over fifth-ranked and defending Rose Bowl Champion Stanford.

KEY STAT

• Michigan State's defense held Stanford to just one offensive touchdown and 11 first downs (season lows), 162 rushing yards (second-lowest total of the season) and 304 yards of total offense (third-lowest total of the season).

KEY PLAY

• With Michigan State leading 24-20 and 1:46 remaining in the game, Stanford faced a fourth-and-1 from its own 34-yard line. All 22 players on the field lined up in the box as the Cardinal attempted to hand the ball off to fullback Ryan Hewitt for the first down, but he was stopped in midair by a leaping Kyler Elsworth, who made the initial hit and kept Hewitt shy of the first-down marker. Shilique Calhoun and Darien Harris also assisted on the play, which cliniched MSU's first Rose Bowl victory in 26 years.

QUOTABLE

"The Rose Bowl to me is the pinnacle of what we do in the Big Ten Conference...I think the Rose Bowl, I can just tell you the experiences that we had this week are really unparalleled, and I've been to a lot of bowls over the course of my time. But it's unparalleled. They have the resources and they have the interest, and they put those resources to work and make it an unbelievable experience for you...I'm so impressed and proud of our football team and happy for all those involved."

- MSU head coach Mark Dantonio

KEY NOTE

• Offensive MVP Connor Cook threw for a career-high 332 yards and completed 22-of-36 passes, including two touchdowns.

RECAP

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) - Connor Cook passed for a career-high 332 yards and hit Tony Lippett with a tiebreaking 25-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth quarter, and No. 4 Michigan State held off the fifth-ranked Cardinal in the 100th Rose Bowl Game, 24-20. Cook also threw a TD pass to Trevon Pendleton, and Jeremy Langford rushed for 84 yards and a score as the Spartans overcame their first double-digit deficit of the entire season before surging ahead late and preserving the lead with stalwart defense. Michigan State's FBS-best defense capped its dominant season with one more old-school performance befitting the centennial celebration of the Granddaddy of Them All. The Spartans (13-1) yielded just 159 yards in the final three quarters, and they closed it out by stopping Stanford fullback Ryan Hewitt on fourth-and-1 on the Cardinal 34-yard line with 1:46 to play.

Kyler Elsworth (No. 41) leaps in the air to make the game-winning stop against Stanford fullback Ryan Hewitt on fourth-and-1 with under two minutes remaining in the game.

COACHING STAFF

MARK DANTONIO
HEAD COACH
EIGHTH SEASON
@DANTONIOMARK

Mark Dantonio, who is in his eighth season as head coach at Michigan State, has restored the pride and tradition of Spartan football while transforming the program into an annual Big Ten Championship contender.

A Zanesville, Ohio, native with Midwest ties, Dantonio led Michigan State to a record-setting season in 2013. MSU won a school-record 13 games, defeated No. 5 Stanford in the 100th Rose Bowl Game, beat No. 2 Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game for the school's eighth Big Ten title, and finished No. 3 in both national polls, the highest ranking for the Spartans since 1966. Michigan State (13-1) became just the third team in Big Ten history to win at least 13 games in a season (Minnesota, 1904; and Ohio State, 2002).

In its first-ever Bowl Championship Series appearance, Michigan State rallied from its largest deficit of the season - twice trailing Stanford by 10 points - for a 24-20 victory over the Cardinal in the 100th Rose Bowl Game. The Spartans closed out the 2013 season with a 10-game winning streak.

After leading the Spartans to their second Big Ten Legends Division title in three years, Dantonio guided MSU past previously undefeated and second-ranked Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game, 34-24, to win the school's eighth Big Ten Championship and earn a berth in the Rose Bowl Game for the first time since 1988. Bowl eligible for a school-record seventh consecutive season, the Spartans finished fourth in the final Bowl Championship Series standings, marking the highest BCS ranking in school history. In addition, Michigan State became the first school in Big Ten history to win all eight of its conference games by double digits.

Dantonio, who has 34 years of collegiate coaching experience, has coached in 18 bowl games. He has led Michigan State to a school-record three consecutive bowl wins (2012 Outback Bowl against No. 18 Georgia; 2012 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl against TCU; 2014 Rose Bowl Game against No. 5 Stanford). Dantonio has participated in four New Year's Day games as a head coach (2009 Capital One Bowl, 2011 Capital One Bowl, 2012 Outback Bowl, 2014 Rose Bowl), and has led Michigan State to Top 25 finishes in four of the last six seasons (2008: No. 24 both polls; 2010: No. 14 both polls; 2011: No. 10 USA TODAY/No. 11 AP; 2013: No. 3 both polls).

Dantonio owns a 64-29 record (.688) at Michigan State since his arrival in 2007. He already ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in career wins (fourth) and winning percentage (fifth), and is the only coach in MSU history to lead multiple teams to double-digit win seasons (11 in 2010 and 2011; 13 in 2013). Among Spartan coaches who have coached at least 10 Big Ten games, Dantonio owns the best conference winning percentage (.679, 38-18 record).

MSU's 42 wins over the last four seasons are most in the Big Ten and tied for ninth most in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision during that period; it's also the winningest four-year stretch in school history. The Spartans have posted four consecutive winning seasons, a first for the program since recording six in a row from 1985-90. MSU produced back-to-back 11-win seasons in 2010-11 for the first time in program history, claimed a share of the Big Ten Championship in 2010, and won the Big Ten Legends title in 2011. In addition, Michigan State has recorded 35 Big Ten victories since 2008, the most of any team in the conference.

Since 2011, Michigan State's defense has been one of the most consistent in the FBS. The Spartans are one of just four schools, along with Alabama, Florida and Florida State, to rank among the FBS Top 10 in total defense the past three seasons. In addition, Michigan State and Alabama are the only teams to rank in the FBS Top 11 the past three years in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and passing defense.

Dantonio earned 2013 Big Ten Coach of the Year honors from both the media and coaches, as the Spartans finished their conference schedule with a perfect 8-0 record for the first time in school history. Michigan State became the 14th Big Ten team to post an 8-0 mark in league play. The Spartans were the first Big Ten team to win all eight of their conference games by double-digit points since the league went to an eight-game schedule in 1971, and also defeated the Buckeyes by double figures in the championship game. In addition, MSU became the first undefeated Big Ten team to win all of its league games by double-figure points since Michigan in 1943 (6-0 record).

Dantonio also was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year, Bobby Bowden Coach of the Year and Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Awards. In addition, he was named one of 16 semifinalists for the Maxwell Football Club Coach of the Year and was tabbed Big Ten Coach of the Year by Sporting News and CollegeFootballNews.com.

Known as one of the top defensive minds in the country, Dantonio and his staff assembled the No. 1 defense in the Big Ten for the third-straight season in 2013. The Spartans led the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision in total defense for 13 straight weeks and finished the season ranked No. 2 in the FBS, allowing just 252.2 yards per game. MSU was the only school to rank in the top three in the four major defensive stat categories: No. 2 in total defense, No. 2 in rushing defense (86.6 ypg.), No. 3 in scoring defense (13.2 ppg.) and No. 3 in pass defense (165.6 ypg.). In addition, the Spartans led the FBS in pass efficiency defense (92.3 rating) and ranked No. 2 in opponent third-down conversions (.279) and No. 5 in first-downs defense (14.3 pg). MSU's defense allowed just 4.04 yards per play, which also ranked No. 1 in the FBS.

The Spartans also led the Big Ten in nine defensive categories (total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass defense, pass efficiency defense, turnover margin, opponent third-down conversions, opponent fourth-down conversions, first downs defense). MSU is the first team to rank first in total defense and rushing defense three years in a row since the Big Ten awarded conference stat champions in 1985 for overall games.

Offensively, the Spartans evolved into championship form as the season progressed, culminating with strong performances against Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game and Stanford in the Rose Bowl Game. The Spartans produced 438 yards of total offense against the Buckeyes and nearly 400 yards (397) against Stanford, which entered the game No. 14 in the FBS in total defense. Sophomore quarterback Connor Cook was named the Most Outstanding Player in the Big Ten Championship Game after throwing for 304 yards and three touchdowns, and he topped that performance by racking up a career-high 332 passing yards and two touchdowns against the Cardinal while being named the Rose Bowl Game's Offensive MVP. In his ford finished with 1,442 rushing yards, the eighth most in an MSU single-season, and he set a school record with eight consecutive 100-yard rushing games.

MSU ranked among the Big Ten leaders in conference games in passing efficiency (third with 139.5 rating), scoring offense (fifth with 29.8 ppg.) and rushing offense (fifth with 185.8 ypg.). The offensive line allowed just 17 sacks - second fewest in the Big Ten and tied for 15th fewest in the FBS. In addition, Michigan State ranked seventh in the FBS in time of possession (33:19 per game).

Another key reason for MSU's success was creating turnovers on defense and limiting mistakes on offense, as Michigan State ranked first in the Big Ten and tied for 10th in the FBS in turnover margin (+13, 0.9 per game). The Spartans forced a total of 28 turnovers (11 fumbles, 17 interceptions), including five for touchdowns (three fumble recoveries, two interception returns). MSU forced the most turnovers in the Big Ten (28) and also turned the ball over the least amount of times (15) in the conference. MSU's seven interceptions were also tied for fewest in the Big Ten and tied for 11th fewest in the FBS.

Michigan State was rewarded for winning the Legends Division by three games, as six Spartans were named to the All-Big Ten First Team and a total of 16 players received all-conference recognition. The six first-team selections were the most for Michigan State since 1990, and the 16 honorees overall equaled the second most under Dantonio (19 in 2011, 16 in 2010). Two Spartans took home individual awards, as senior Darqueze Dennard was named the Tatum-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year, while sophomore Shilique Calhoun was named the Smith-Brown Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year. Dennard, Calhoun and senior linebacker Max Bullough were first-team selections by both the coaches and media. Junior safety Kurtis Drummond, senior safety Isaiah Lewis and junior punter Mike Sadler were named first-team All-Big Ten by the coaches. The five first-team selections on defense tied for the most in school history (1966). Since 2007, Dantonio has helped produce 26 first-team All-Big Ten selections.

Michigan State defeated five bowl-bound teams in 2013, including victories over Iowa, Michigan, Nebraska, Minnesota and Ohio State. The Spartans snapped Ohio State's school-record 24-game winning streak in the Big Ten Championship.

Since 2007, Dantonio has helped produce five consensus first-team All-Americans (2008: RB Javon Ringer; 2009-10: LB Greg Jones; 2011: DT Jerel Worthy; and 2013: CB Darqueze Dennard) and 16 NFL Draft picks, including six in 2012. Dennard was a unanimous All-America selection and also won the Jim Thorpe Award, which is given annually to the nation's best defensive back.

From his first day on the job, Dantonio has pledged to support student-athletes as they pursue excellence, both in the classroom and on the playing field. In his first seven seasons, more than 80 percent (98 of 123) of his Michigan State players who have completed their eligibility have earned their undergraduate degrees. In addition, 87 Spartans have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, including six Academic All-Americans (Blair White, 2009 second team; Mike Sadler, 2013 first team, 2012 second team, 2011 second team; Max Bullough, 2013 first team, 2012 second team).

Under Dantonio, Michigan State has produced a 38-11 record (.776) in home games, including a 15-game winning streak (7-0 in 2010, 7-0 in 2011, won first game in 2012). The Spartans have won 23 of their last 28 home games.

Michigan State secured its third-straight winning campaign (7-6) in 2012 with a thrilling 13-point second-half comeback victory over TCU in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, defeating the Horned Frogs, 17-16.

A total of 11 Spartans received All-Big Ten recognition last in 2012, including junior running back Le'Veon Bell, who garnered consensus first-team honors after leading the Big Ten and ranking No. 3 in the NCAA FBS in rushing with 137.9 yards per game.

The Spartan defense ranked among the NCAA FBS Top 10 in eight categories: touchdowns allowed (second with 16), pass efficiency defense (third at 98.8), total defense (fourth at 274.4 ypg.), pass break-ups (tied for eighth at 4.8 pg.), rushing defense (eighth at 98.6 ypg.), third-down defense (eighth at .305), pass defense (ninth at 175.8 ypg.) and scoring defense (ninth at 16.3 ppg.).

In 2011, thanks to its 33-30 triple-overtime victory over Georgia in the 2012 Outback Bowl, Michigan State (11-3) finished No. 10 in the final USA TODAY Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the final Associated Press Poll. Michigan State's 11 wins in 2011 tied a then-school single-season record, as the Spartans became bowl eligible for a school-record fifth consecutive year. MSU won the Big Ten Legends Division title outright with a 7-1 conference record. The Spartans came up just short of their first Rose Bowl appearance since 1988, falling to Wisconsin, 42-39, in the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game.

Michigan State defeated five bowl-bound teams, including a victory over the Badgers earlier in the season on Oct. 22 in Spartan Stadium, 37-31, on a last-second, 44-yard touchdown pass from Kirk Cousins to Keith Nichol. MSU also beat No. 11 Michigan for the fourth-straight year on Oct. 15 in Spartan Stadium, 28-14, a first for the program since 1959-62. Other landmark victories included a 10-7 win at Ohio State on Oct. 1, MSU's first win in Ohio Stadium since 1998, and a 37-21 victory at Iowa on Nov. 12, the Spartans' first triumph in Kinnick Stadium since 1989.

Following the successful 2011 campaign, six Spartans were selected in the 2012 NFL Draft, the most since 2000: Worthy (Green Bay Packers, second round), Cousins (Washington Redskins, fourth round), Keshawn Martin (Houston Texans, fourth round), Trenton Robinson (San Francisco 49ers, sixth round), Cunningham (Miami Dolphins, sixth round) and Edwin Baker (San Diego, seventh round).

Dantonio, who led Michigan State to a then school-record 11 wins in 2010 and a share of its first Big Ten Championship since 1990, was named the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year, as selected by the conference's media panel. A finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant, Eddie Robinson and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year Awards, Dantonio helped manage the third-biggest turnaround among NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams during the regular season, as the Spartans improved from 6-7 in 2009 to 11-1 in 2010. He was also named the AFCA (American Football Coaches Association) Region 3 Coach of the Year, and earned National Coach of the Year honors from CBSSports.com, Scout.com and Rivals.com.

Thanks to its 28-22 victory at Penn State in the regular-season finale, Michigan State recorded its first win in State College since 1965 and finished in a tie with Wisconsin for the 2010 Big Ten Championship. MSU also dealt Wisconsin its only loss of the 2010 regular season, 34-24, in the Big Ten opener. The Spartans finished the season ranked No. 14 in both The Associated Press and USA TODAY/ Coaches' Polls.

One of 15 semifinalists for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award, Dantonio had a breakthrough season as a head coach in 2008. Under his leadership, the Spartans went 9-3 in the regular season and compiled a 6-2 record in the Big Ten, the best league mark for the program since 1999.

In his first season as head coach at Michigan State, Dantonio sparked a three-game turnaround as the Spartans finished the 2007 regular season with a 7-5 record, securing the program's first bowl bid in four years with a berth against Boston College in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

The 58-year old Dantonio established himself as one of the nation's up-and-coming coaches during his three-year tenure at Cincinnati, where he compiled an 18-17 overall record and led the program in its transition from Conference USA to the BIG EAST Conference.

Prior to his appointment at Cincinnati, Dantonio served as the defensive coordinator under Jim Tressel at Ohio State for three seasons, where his defensive unit helped the Buckeyes to a combined record of 32-6. Dantonio assembled the defense which led Ohio State to the 2002 National Championship. Dantonio spent six years (1995-2000) as Michigan State's secondary coach, including five seasons under Saban and one under Bobby Williams.

PAT NARDUZZI
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
EIGHTH SEASON

Now in his eighth season as Michigan State's defensive coordinator, Pat Narduzzi has developed the Spartans into one of the top defensive teams in the nation. Narduzzi was promoted to assistant head coach on March 4, 2013.

Narduzzi helped construct the No. 1 defense in the Big Ten for the third consecutive year in 2013. The Spartans led the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision in total defense for 13 straight weeks and finished the season ranked No. 2 in the FBS, allowing just 252.2 yards per game. MSU was the only school to rank in the top three in the four major defensive stat categories: No. 2 in total defense, No. 2 in rushing defense (86.6 ypg.), No. 3 in scoring defense (13.2 ppg.) and No. 3 in pass defense (165.6 ypg.). In addition, the Spartans led the FBS in pass efficiency defense (92.3 rating) and ranked No. 2 in opponent third-down conversions (.279) and No. 5 in first-downs defense (14.3 pg). MSU's defense allowed just 4.04 yards per play, which also ranked No. 1 in the FBS.

Michigan State led the Big Ten in nine defensive stat categories, including total defense and rushing defense for the third year in a row. Since the Big Ten awarded conference stat champions in 1985 for overall games, MSU is the first team to win three straight titles in total defense and rushing defense.

Narduzzi was named the winner of the 2013 Frank Broyles Award, which is awarded annually to the nation's top assistant coach. He is the first MSU coach to win the award, which started in 1996. Narduzzi also was named the National Defensive Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop.

Since 2011, Michigan State's defense has been one of the most consistent in the FBS. The Spartans are one of just four schools, along with Alabama, Florida and Florida State, to rank among the FBS Top 10 in total defense the past three seasons. In addition, Michigan State and Alabama are the only teams to rank in the FBS Top 11 the past three years in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and passing defense.

Michigan State held all 14 of its opponents in 2013 under their season average in points and total offense. MSU prevented six opponents from scoring a touchdown (South Florida, Purdue, Illinois, Michigan, Northwestern, Minnesota), and the Spartans shut out six of their eight Big Ten opponents in the second half. The Spartans allowed just 20 touchdowns on defense (eight rushing, 12 passing), which ranked second fewest in the FBS for the second year in a row. In the 2014 Rose Bowl Game victory over No. 5 Stanford, the Cardinal were held to just one offensive touchdown and 11 first downs (season lows), 162 rushing yards (second-lowest total of the season) and 304 yards of total offense (third-lowest total of the season).

The foundation of Michigan State's defense is stopping the run, and Narduzzi's unit once again proved it could stop the rush in 2013. The Spartans led the Big Ten and ranked second in the NCAA FBS in rushing defense, allowing just 86.6 yards per game, which also marked the seventh-best effort in school history. MSU has finished in the Top 25 nationally in rushing defense four of the past five seasons (24th in 2009; ninth in 2011; eighth in 2012; second in 2013). Since the beginning of 2011, Michigan State has held 25 opponents under 100 rushing yards (seven in 2011; eight in 2012; 10 in 2013), which ranks tied for third most in the NCAA FBS (Alabama: 29; Stanford: 27; MSU/Florida State: 25).

The Spartans featured five first-team All-Big Ten selections on defense, which tied for the most in school history (1966). Senior linebacker Max Bullough, sophomore defensive end Shilique Calhoun, senior cornerback Darqueze Dennard, junior safety Kurtis Drummond and senior safety Isaiah Lewis all garnered first-team accolades from the league's coaches, while Bullough, Calhoun and Dennard were also on the media's first team. Eight of MSU's starters received All-Big Ten recognition (second team: senior linebacker Denicos Allen; honorable mention: junior defensive end Marcus Rush, sophomore cornerback Trae Waynes).

Calhoun was named the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year, while Dennard was named the Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year. Dennard also won the Jim Thorpe Award (nation's best defensive back) and Jack Tatum Award (nation's top defensive back by The Touchdown Club of Columbus), and was one of five finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (nation's best defensive player).

Narduzzi has been named the National Coordinator of the Week four times in his career - three for his game plans in wins over Michigan (2010, 2011, 2013), including last season, when the Wolverines were sacked seven times and were held to a school-record low minus-48 yards rushing, and also for his role in helping MSU defeat Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game. The Spartans held the previously undefeated and second-ranked Buckeyes to a season-low 374 yards of total offense and 24 points.

During Narduzzi's tenure at MSU, his players have earned All-Big Ten honors 56 times, including 11 different first-team selections, and first-team All-America accolades on four occasions.

DAVE WARNER
CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
RUNNING BACKS
EIGHTH SEASON

Dave Warner enters his second season as the co-offensive coordinator and his eighth overall at Michigan State. Warner, who also coaches the running backs, was promoted to co-offensive coordinator on March 4, 2013. He previously coached the quarterbacks for six seasons.

The Spartan offense steadily improved all season long during MSU's record-setting campaign in 2013, culminating with strong performances against Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game and Stanford in the Rose Bowl Game. The Spartans produced 438 yards of total offense against the Buckeyes and nearly 400 yards (397) against Stanford, which entered the game No. 14 in the FBS in total defense.

Sophomore quarterback Connor Cook was named the Most Outstanding Player in the Big Ten Championship Game after throwing for 304 yards and three touchdowns, and he topped that performance by racking up a career-high 332 passing yards and two touchdowns against the Cardinal while being named the Rose Bowl Game's Offensive MVP. Cook finished his first year as the starter with one of the best statistical seasons in school history, ranking second in the MSU single-season record book in touchdown passes (22), fourth in total offense (2,831 yards) and pass attempts (380), fifth in passing yards (2,755), and sixth in pass completions (223).

In his first year working with Jeremy Langford, Warner helped developed the junior into one of the top running backs in the Big Ten. Langford, who hadn't started a game entering the season, emerged as a dynamic scoring threat, as he led the Big Ten with 18 rushing touchdowns. The Wayne, Mich., native also ranked among the Big Ten leaders in total touchdowns (first with 19), scoring (third with 8.1 ppg.) and rushing (sixth with 101.6 ypg.). In addition, Langford ranked among MSU's single-season leaders in touchdowns (third), rushing touchdowns (fourth), rushing attempts (sixth with 292) and rushing yards (eighth with 1,422). He established a school record by rushing for more than 100 yards in eight consecutive games.

MSU's offense also featured a balanced passing attack. The Spartans were one of only two teams in the Big Ten to have seven players with at least 17 receptions, and nine different players caught touchdown passes.

The offensive line, which rotated in eight different players, was one of the top units in the country and a key reason why MSU ranked seventh in the FBS in time of possession (33:19). In addition to a strong running game, the Spartans only allowed 17 sacks, second fewest in the Big Ten and 15th fewest in the FBS.

Six starters earned All-Big Ten recognition on the offense, including Cook (second team, coaches), senior offensive guard Blake Treadwell (second team, coaches and media), sophomore center Jack Allen (second team, media), senior offensive tackle Fou Fonoti (honorable mention), senior offensive guard Dan France (honorable mention) and Langford (honorable mention).

Warner has been a quarterbacks coach and/or offensive coordinator or passing game coordinator for 25 of his 30 seasons as a college assistant. Warner served as the offensive coordinator for two seasons (1999-2000) at Connecticut, and was the passing game coordinator at Wyoming (1998) and Houston (2001-02).

Under the direction of Warner, Spartan quarterbacks posted record numbers. Kirk Cousins, the winningest quarterback in school history with 27 victories as a starter, became MSU's career record holder in 2011 for passing touchdowns (66), passing yards (9,131), completions (723), passing efficiency (146.1 rating), total offense (9,004 yards) and 200-yard passing games (26). Cousins' numbers were some of the best in Big Ten history, as finished his career ranked among the conference's all-time Top 10 in completion percentage (tied for sixth at .641), passing efficiency rating (sixth), passing yards (10th) and TD passes (tied for 10th).

Warner also tutored Brian Hoyer at Michigan State from 2007-08; Hoyer recently completed his fifth season in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns.

COACHING STAFF

JIM BOLLMAN
CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS
SECOND SEASON

Jim Bollman, who has 37 years of coaching experience, both at the collegiate and professional levels, enters his second year as the co-offensive coordinator and tight ends coach. Bollman, who spent 11 years as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Ohio State (2001-11), was named co-offensive coordinator on March 4, 2013.

Bollman coached in his ninth BCS Bowl and 18th postseason game overall as the Spartans defeated No. 5 Stanford in the 2014 Rose Bowl Game. He was the offensive coordinator for the Buckeyes during their 2002 National Championship season and has coached in three BCS National Championship Games.

Under the tutelage of Bollman, the Spartan tight ends showed tremendous growth during the 2013 season. The entire group had a combined five starts entering the season, but the trio of red-shirt freshman Josiah Price and juniors Michael Dennis and Andrew Gleichert all contributed with multiple starts in helping create the position into a strength for the offense. Price caught 17 passes for 210 yards and ranked second on the team with four touchdown receptions.

A former offensive line coach at Michigan State in the mid-1990s, Bollman also was instrumental in developing one of the top offensive lines in the country. All five starters received postseason recognition and the group gave up just 17 sacks in 2013, which was second fewest in the Big Ten.

Bollman and Dantonio have coached together before on three previous occasions: Youngstown State (1986-90), Michigan State (1995-97) and Ohio State (2001-03). Bollman was the offensive line coach for three seasons (1995-97) at MSU under Nick Saban while Dantonio was the secondary coach. Dantonio and Bollman both arrived at Ohio State for the 2001 season. Dantonio spent three years (2001-03) as the defensive coordinator under Jim Tressel, while Bollman went on to coach 11 years (2001-11) for the Buckeyes, both as an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator. Dantonio and Bollman first coached together at Youngstown State for four seasons (1986-90).

The Buckeyes compiled a 100-28 overall record (.781) during Bollman's tenure as offensive coordinator from 2001-11 (Ohio State had to vacate 12 wins from the 2010 season). The Buckeyes achieved seven 10-win (or more) seasons during that stretch, and he coached in 11 bowl games, including eight BCS games (2003 BCS National Championship, 2004 Fiesta, 2006 Fiesta, 2007 BCS National Championship, 2008 BCS National Championship, 2009 Fiesta, 2010 Rose, 2011 Sugar).

Under Bollman's offensive direction at Ohio State, his players earned first-team All-Big Ten honors 23 times, including quarterback Troy Smith, who captured the 2006 Heisman Trophy and also earned the Walter Camp Award, Davey O'Brien Award, AP Player of the Year, Sporting News Player of the Year and Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year his senior season. While at OSU, Bollman also mentored 15 linemen that went on to make NFL rosters, and he has worked with 29 players overall that have played professionally during his coaching career.

HARLON BARNETT
SECONDARY
EIGHTH SEASON

Harlon Barnett, a four-year letterwinner at Michigan State (1986-89) as a defensive back who was named a captain and All-American as a senior, is in his eighth season as the Spartans' secondary coach. Barnett returned to East Lansing with seven years of professional playing experience and nine seasons of coaching experience under his belt.

Barnett mentors one of the top secondaries in the nation, as the Spartans are the only school in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision to rank among the nation's Top 20 in pass defense and pass efficiency defense the past three seasons. In addition, the Spartans are one of just two FBS schools, along with Alabama, to rank among the nation's top 11 in pass defense in 2011 (11th at 175.8 ypg.), 2012 (ninth at 176.9 ypg.) and 2013 (third at 165.6 ypg.). After ranking third in pass efficiency defense in 2012 with a 98.8 rating, the Spartans were No. 1 in the FBS in 2013 with a 92.3 rating. MSU also ranked tied for second in the Big Ten with 17 interceptions last season.

All four of MSU's starting defensive backs received All-Big Ten recognition in 2013, including three first-team All-Big Ten selections. The group was led by senior captain Darqueze Dennard, the first-ever cornerback at Michigan State to earn unanimous first-team All-America honors. Dennard was also the first Spartan to win the Jim Thorpe Award, which is given annually to the nation's best defensive back. In addition, Dennard was named the winner of the Jack Tatum Award, which is presented to college football's top defensive back by The Touchdown Club of Columbus. The lock-down corner, who was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and named the Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year, ranked among the Big Ten leaders in interceptions (4), pass break-ups (10) and passes defended (14).

Senior strong safety Isaiah Lewis and junior free safety Kurtis Drummond were also selected All-Big Ten First Team by the coaches, while sophomore cornerback Trae Waynes garnered honorable mention. Lewis was invited to participate in the 2014 Senior Bowl.

For his efforts in leading the Big Ten's top pass defense in 2013, Barnett was named one of three finalists for National Defensive Back Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.

Barnett's players have earned All-Big Ten honors 20 times since his arrival as secondary coach at MSU, including six different first-team selections (Otis Wiley in 2008; Trenton Robinson in 2011; Johnny Adams in 2011-12; Darqueze Dennard in 2011-12, Kurtis Drummond in 2012; Isaiah Lewis in 2012). The past four seasons alone, Spartan defensive backs have picked up All-Big Ten recognition on 15 occasions, and all four of MSU's starters in the secondary garnered All-Big Ten recognition during the 2010, 2011 and 2013 seasons.

Three Spartans in the secondary have been selected in the NFL Draft under Barnett's tutelage: Jeremy Ware (2010, Oakland Raiders, seventh round), Chris L. Rucker (2011, Indianapolis Colts, sixth round), and Robinson (2012, San Francisco 49ers, sixth round).

In June 2012, Barnett was one of eight football coaches to participate in the Champion Forum, the top tier of the NCAA's coaching academy programs, held in conjunction with the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Convention in Dallas.

Barnett, who spent three seasons as secondary coach on Mark Dantonio's staff at Cincinnati, landed his first collegiate coaching job as a graduate assistant at LSU in 2003 under Nick Saban, where he was a part of the Tigers' National Championship campaign.

A native of Cincinnati, Barnett was a three-year starter for Coach George Perles at MSU. He was a member of the 1987 Big Ten and 1988 Rose Bowl championship team and earned first-team All-America recognition by The Sporting News as a senior in 1989.

Following his impressive career at MSU, Barnett was taken in the fourth round of the 1990 NFL Draft by Cleveland, where he played for three seasons (1990-92). He spent two seasons at New England (1993-94) and two more with Minnesota (1995-96).

RON BURTON
DEFENSIVE LINE
SECOND SEASON

Ron Burton, a 22-year coaching veteran who also played four seasons in the NFL, enters his second season as defensive line coach at Michigan State. Burton previously spent 10 seasons (2003-12) as the defensive line coach at Air Force.

Burton made an immediate impact in his first year on the Spartan staff in 2013. Michigan State's defensive line showed significant improvement in its productivity under Burton, increasing its totals in sacks (+12) and tackles for loss (+10) from 2012.

In his first year as a starter, sophomore Shilique Calhoun garnered second-team All-America honors from numerous organizations and was named the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year as well as the National Defensive Performer of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards. Calhoun led the team in sacks (7.5) and ranked second in tackles for loss (14), ranked first in the Big Ten with four fumble recoveries, and was one of only two players in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision to score three defensive touchdowns.

Junior Marcus Rush garnered honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades for the third year in a row, while senior defensive tackles Micajah Reynolds and Tyler Hoover both delivered their most productive seasons wearing the Green and White. In addition, Burton helped develop sophomores Damon Knox and Mark Scarpinato, who each filled in as starters and added quality depth to the defensive front.

For his efforts in 2013, Burton was named the National Defensive Line Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.

During his 10 seasons at Air Force, Burton helped the Falcons to a combined record of 67-57 (.540), including a school-record six consecutive postseason bowl appearances (2007-12), while developing some of the top defensive linemen in school history. Burton also served as the program's NFL liaison.

In 2008, Jake Paulson became the first-ever defensive lineman at Air Force to earn first-team All-Mountain West honors after recording 14.5 tackles for loss and nine sacks. One year later, nose guard Ben Garland was a second-team All-MWC selection and signed a free agent contract with the Denver Broncos. In the Falcons' 2010 Independence Bowl victory over Georgia Tech, defensive lineman Rick Ricketts, a second-team All-MWC choice, was named the defensive most valuable player of the game. Burton also coached two-time Academic All-American (defensive end) Ryan Carter.

Before arriving at Air Force, Burton spent one season (2002) at Grand Valley State and helped lead the Lakers to a perfect 14-0 record and the 2002 NCAA Division II National Championship, the first in school history.

Burton has Big Ten coaching experience, as he spent five seasons as the linebackers coach at Indiana from 1997-2001.

A four-year letterman (1982-86) at North Carolina, Burton helped the Tar Heels to three bowl appearances during his career and was named team captain and best defensive lineman as a senior. He graduated from UNC with a bachelor's degree in industrial relations in 1987.

Following graduation, Burton spent four seasons playing linebacker in the NFL for the Dallas Cowboys (1987-89), Phoenix Cardinals (1989) and Los Angeles Raiders (1990). Burton started 15 games for the Cowboys in 1988 and recorded two sacks, and played on the 1990 Raiders team that advanced to the 1990 AFC Championship Game.

After his NFL career, Burton returned to North Carolina and spent two years as a graduate assistant (1992-93) for the Tar Heels.

BRAD SALEM QUARTERBACKS/
RECRUITING COORDINATOR
FIFTH SEASON

Brad Salem, a former head coach at NCAA Division II Augustana College in Sioux Falls, S.D., is in his fifth year on the coaching staff at Michigan State and his second as quarterbacks coach. He is also in his fourth year as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Salem was instrumental in helping the development of Connor Cook in his first season as the starting quarterback in 2013. Cook, who took over the starting role in Week 2 against South Florida, went 12-1 as the starter and finished his sophomore year ranked among MSU's single-season leaders in passing touchdowns (second with 22), total offense (fourth with 2,831 yards), pass attempts (fourth with 380), passing yards (fifth with 2,755) and pass completions (sixth with 223). His progress was on full display in the final two games of the season. Cook took home Most Outstanding Player honors at the Big Ten Championship Game after completing 24-of-40 passes for 304 yards and three touchdowns against No. 2 Ohio State, and followed that effort by being named the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, as he threw for a career-high 332 yards and two touchdowns in the win over No. 5 Stanford. Cook was a second-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches.

Salem has been either an offensive coordinator or quarterbacks coach for eight seasons as a college assistant. He spent his first three seasons at Michigan State (2010-12) coaching the running backs.

Salem mentored one of the most productive running backs in Spartan history, Le'Veon Bell, from 2010-12. Bell had a career year in 2012, winning the Big Ten rushing title and ranking third in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision, averaging 137.9 yards per game. Named a first-team All-American by CollegeFootballNews.com, Bell compiled 1,793 rushing yards, the second-highest single-season total in MSU history. The first-team All-Big Ten selection finished his career ranked among MSU's all-time leaders in rushing TDs (sixth with 33), rushing attempts (sixth with 671), rushing yards (seventh with 3,346), 100-yard rushing games (eighth with 12) and all-purpose yards (ninth with 4,114). Bell was selected in the second round of the 2013 National Football League Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers and was named the Steelers Rookie of the Year last season.

Salem coached one of the most talented backfields in the Big Ten in 2011, as junior Edwin Baker and Bell combined for 1,613 rushing yards (115.2 yards per game) – the second most of any running back duo in the conference – to go along with 18 rushing touchdowns. Baker was selected in the seventh round of the 2012 National Football League Draft by the San Diego Chargers and recently finished his second season in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns.

Under Salem's direction in 2010, Michigan State's running backs improved their totals from 2009. The resurgent running game was led by Baker, who became just the sixth sophomore in MSU history to reach the 1,000-yard milestone as he compiled 1,201 rushing yards. A first-team All-Big Ten honoree by the media, Baker ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 30th nationally in rushing, averaging 92.4 ypg.

In five seasons (2005-09) as head coach at Augustana College, Salem compiled a 31-26 record. Salem led Augustana College to back-to-back 8-4 records and consecutive trips to the Mineral Water Bowl in 2008-09. Prior to being promoted to head coach, he spent two seasons as an assistant coach under Jim Heinitz, serving as quarterbacks coach in 2003 and offensive coordinator in 2004.

COACHING STAFF

TERRENCE SAMUEL
WIDE RECEIVERS
FOURTH SEASON

Terrence Samuel, a 16-year coaching veteran who played his collegiate football at Purdue, is in his fourth year as wide receivers coach at Michigan State.

Perhaps no position group on the team made as much improvement as the wide receiver corps during MSU's Big Ten Championship season in 2013. A year after having to break in as many as four starters, the unit solidified itself as one of the best in the Big Ten. The Spartans were one of only two teams in the conference, along with Illinois, to have seven players with at least 17 receptions. In addition, nine different Spartans caught touchdowns in 2013, led by fifth-year senior Bennie Fowler, who hauled in six.

Fowler, whose strong senior campaign earned him a spot in the Senior Bowl and an invite to the NFL Scouting Combine, led the Spartans with a career-high 622 receiving yards on 36 catches, while junior Tony Lippett (44 catches for 613 yards) and sophomore Macgarrett Kings Jr. (43 for 513 yards) both recorded career highs in receptions and receiving yards. Lippett was named to the ESPN.com Big Ten All-Bowl Team after collecting a career-high 94 receiving yards in the Rose Bowl Game victory over No. 5 Stanford, including the game-winning 22-yard touchdown grab in the fourth quarter.

After a record-breaking season in 2011, Samuel had the difficult challenge of restocking MSU's receiving corps as only 23 percent of the team's receptions and 16 percent of the team's receiving yards returned in 2012. The young Spartans – featuring four new full-time starters and no seniors – improved significantly as the season progressed. Michigan State was the only team in the Big Ten to feature six players with at least 29 receptions, and three receivers recorded their first career touchdown catch.

Samuel made an immediate impact at MSU in his first season in 2011. He helped tutor fifth-year senior B.J. Cunningham, who became the school's all-time leader in receptions (218) and receiving yards (3,086). Under Samuel, Cunningham had his finest season as a Spartan, setting career highs in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,306) and touchdown catches (12). Those marks also ranked among MSU's single-season leaders in receptions (tied for first), receiving yards (third) and touchdowns (tied for third). In addition, he set an MSU single-season record with eight 100-yard receiving games. Cunningham was a second-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches and media, and also earned All-America honors from Phil Steele (fourth team) and SI.com (honorable mention).

Senior Keshawn Martin, an honorable mention All-Big Ten pick, also produced his best year, recording career highs in receptions (66) and receiving yards (777). A multi-dimensional threat, Martin finished his career ranked second in MSU history in punt return yards (659), eighth in kick return yards (1,100), 10th in all-purpose yards (4,013), 11th in receptions (127), 16th in receiving yards (1,714) and tied for 17th in touchdown receptions (10).

Cunningham (79 catches) and Martin (66) combined for 145 receptions in 2011, the most ever by a receiving duo in a Michigan State season (previous record: 124 by Charles Rogers (67) and Herb Haygood (57) in 2001). Cunningham (1,306 yards) and Martin (777) also produced the most receiving yards of any receiving duo in an MSU season, teaming up for 2,083 receiving yards in 2011 (previous record: Plaxico Burress (1,142) and Gari Scott (843) with 1,985 receiving yards in 1998).

Both of those marks by Cunningham and Martin (145 receptions; 2,083 receiving yards) ranked first among receiving duos in the Big Ten in 2011.

Martin was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 National Football League Draft by the Houston Texas, while Cunningham was picked in the sixth round by the Miami Dolphins.

Samuel spent the 2010 season at Central Michigan under former Spartan quarterback and assistant coach Dan Enos.

MARK STATEN
OFFENSIVE LINE
EIGHTH SEASON

Mark Staten is in his eighth year on the coaching staff at Michigan State and his fourth as the offensive line coach. He was promoted to offensive line coach in February 2011 after serving as the tight ends/tackles coach and recruiting coordinator for four years. Staten adds a mix of professional playing experience with a solid coaching background.

Staten helped mold the top offensive line in head coach Mark Dantonio's tenure in East Lansing during MSU's record-setting season in 2013. The versatile group, which saw as many as eight lineman in the playing rotation, was one of the main reasons why Michigan State continued to improve throughout the season on the offensive side of the ball.

All five starters received postseason recognition, including left guard Blake Treadwell (second-team All-Big Ten, coaches and media), center Jack Allen (second-team All-Big Ten, media), right tackle Fou Fonoti (honorable mention All-Big Ten), right guard Dan France (honorable mention All-Big Ten) and left tackle Jack Conklin (first-team Freshman All-American by Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and CollegeFootballNews.com). In addition, Allen and Treadwell were each named to the ESPN.com Big Ten All-Bowl Team for their performances in the Rose Bowl Game victory over No. 5 Stanford. Junior center Travis Jackson, junior guard Connor Kruse and sophomore tackle Donavon Clark also were instrumental to the line's success.

For the third-straight season, Staten mentored a Freshman All-American, as Conklin earned first-team honors from the FWAA, Sporting News and CollegeFootballNews.com. Allen was a first-team selection by the FWAA and Sporting News in 2012, while Jackson garnered Freshman All-America accolades in 2011.

Michigan State not only protected first-year starting quarterback Connor Cook, as the line gave up only 17 sacks (second fewest in Big Ten and tied for 15th fewest in the FBS), but it also paved the way for Jeremy Langford, who led the conference with 18 rushing touchdowns. When the game was on the line, the unit performed at its best – the Spartans ranked 16th in the FBS in fourth quarter rushing (56.8 avg.) and ranked seventh in the nation in time of possession (33:19 per game).

MSU had to deal with multiple injuries throughout the first half of 2012, including the loss of starters Fonoti and Jackson. The Spartans used six different starting combinations along the offensive line, but still managed to lead the way for first-team All-Big Ten selection Le'Veon Bell, who led the Big Ten and ranked third in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision in rushing, averaging 137.9 yards per game. The line showed signs of improvement toward the end of the season, as Bell averaged 183.0 rushing yards when the Spartans used the same starting five up front for the last four games.

Heading into 2011, Michigan State's offensive line had to replace three starters, but Staten helped develop a young group that featured just one senior starter into one of the best in the Big Ten. Although the Spartans had to use four different starting combinations on the offensive line, including three different starting centers, the unit allowed just 16 sacks, second-fewest in the Big Ten and 19th-fewest in the FBS.

As tight ends/tackles coach, Staten's players collected All-Big Ten honors on seven occasions, including second-team tackle Pete Clifford (2007), second-team tackle Jesse Miller (2008), second-team tight end Charlie Gantt (2010) and second-team tackle D.J. Young (2010).

As recruiting coordinator, Staten helped put together a 2009 recruiting class that analysts ranked among the nation's Top 25 (MaxPreps/Tom Lemming No. 12, PrepStar No. 15, Rivals.com No. 17 and Scouts, Inc. No. 21). The Spartans followed that effort with another stellar class in 2010 that was ranked among the nation's Top 30 (MaxPreps/Tom Lemming No. 22, Rivals.com No. 29).

MIKE TRESSEL
LINEBACKERS/SPECIAL TEAMS
EIGHTH SEASON

Mike Tressel is in his eighth year as the linebackers and special teams coach at Michigan State.

The impressive play of the Spartan linebackers under Tressel is one of the main reasons why Michigan State has led the Big Ten in rushing defense and total defense the past three seasons. In addition, the Spartans are one of just two NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision Schools, along with Alabama, to rank in the Top 10 nationally in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense the last three years.

Senior captain Max Bullough, a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection, was the quarterback of the league's top-ranked defense in 2013. A third-team All-America honoree by The Associated Press, Bullough ranked among the team leaders in tackles (76) and tackles for loss (9.5). He closed his career with 40 starts at middle linebacker and ranks 11th in school history in tackles for loss (30.5) and 18th in tackles (299).

Fellow three-year starter Denicos Allen picked up second-team All-America accolades from SI.com. Allen led the team with a career-high 98 tackles as a senior and also led the team with 16.5 tackles for loss, good for seventh most in an MSU single-season. He finished his career ranked third in the school record book with 46 career tackles for loss. Allen capped his illustrious career with seven tackles, including 1.5 for losses, in the 100th Rose Bowl Game against No. 5 Stanford, and was named to the SI.com All-Bowl Team and ESPN.com Big Ten All-Bowl Team.

Junior Taiwan Jones, the starter at Star (weakside) linebacker, ranked fourth on the team with a career-high 67 tackles, including seven for loss.

Tressel also oversees a successful special teams unit that has been one of the best in the Big Ten since his arrival. Junior punter Mike Sadler, who was selected a first-team All-American by CBSSports.com and ESPN.com, has proven to be a valuable weapon throughout his career. In 2013, he led the nation with 24 punts downed inside the 10-yard line and ranked tied for second with 33 placed inside the 20. True freshman placekicker Michael Geiger stepped into the starting role in Week 4 and rose to the challenge. Geiger made 13 consecutive field goals to close the season and set the MSU single-season field-goal percentage record (.938; 15 of 16). He was an honorable mention All-America pick by SI.com and a first-team Freshman All-America selection by the Football Writers Association of America.

The past seven years, MSU has had two first-team All-Big Ten placekickers (Conroy and Brett Swenson), two first-team All-Big Ten punters (Sadler and Aaron Bates), and has featured conference leaders in both kick returns (Devin Thomas) and punt returns (Keshawn Martin).

In 2011, Michigan State led the Big Ten in rushing defense (100.5 yards per game) and total defense (277.4 ypg.) en route to winning the Big Ten Legends Division title. For the first time since 1990, all three of MSU's starting linebackers garnered All-Big Ten honors. Allen, who ranked second in the Big Ten in sacks with 11 and fourth in tackles for loss with 18.5, was named second-team all-conference by the media. Bullough picked up second-team accolades from the coaches after leading the Spartans with 89 tackles and junior Chris Norman was named honorable mention after recording career highs in tackles (76) and tackles for loss (6.5).

Tressel arrived at Michigan State following the 2006 regular season, as he was one of eight assistants to follow Dantonio to MSU from Cincinnati.

KEN MANNIE
HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
20TH SEASON

Ken Mannie is in his 20th year as Michigan State's head strength and conditioning coach for football, while additionally directing and overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for all men's and women's sports. His "Fourth Quarter" and "Bottom Line" offseason conditioning programs have been a significant reason for Michigan State's success in the Coach Mark Dantonio era, as the Spartans have earned a school-record seven consecutive bowl bids, including a victory in the 2014 Rose Bowl Game over No. 5 Stanford.

Mannie is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), the National Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (NSCA) and holds an honorary certification with the International Association of Resistance Trainers (IART). In May 2002 at its annual conference in Salt Lake City, the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association awarded Mannie the title of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC) in recognition of his credentials, professional contributions, mentorship, expertise, and longevity in the field. He is also a professional member of the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM), the National Association for Sport and Physical Education (NASPE), and the American Association for Health Education (AAHE).

In both 2006 and 2007, Mannie was named to Who's Who Among America's Teachers in recognition for his numerous and ongoing educational efforts in the field of strength and conditioning and in bringing awareness to the anabolic drug abuse problem in sports. He has been recognized and is widely-published on his adamant stance against performance-enhancing drugs.

In June 2007, the Varsity S Club inducted him as an honorary member.

He has written more than 300 articles and four book chapters on the various aspects of strength/conditioning, speed/power development, sports nutrition, motivation, athletics, and the anabolic drug abuse issue. Since 2000, Mannie has written the monthly column "Powerline" for Coach and Athletic Director, the nation's oldest and most prestigious coaching publication. He is also a frequent contributor to the Championship Performance newsletter.

He also serves on the advisory boards for the National Strength Professionals Association (NSPA), the information-based Athletic Strength and Power (ASAP) website, and the Ultimate Strength and Conditioning website.

Mannie has coached numerous All-Americans, as well as a host of players who went on to have highly successful NFL careers.

Additionally, he has served as a consultant to several NFL teams on training equipment, program design, and the organization and administration of testing protocols.

Prior to his arrival at Michigan State, Mannie spent nine years in a similar capacity at the University of Toledo (1985-94). He worked for Nick Saban in 1990 when the Rockets won a share of the Mid-American Conference title and finished 9-2.

He served as a graduate assistant along with Mark Dantonio at Ohio State in 1984, working with the Buckeyes' Big Ten championship football team.

TOMMY HOKE
ASSOCIATE HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
11TH SEASON

Tommy Hoke is in his 11th year as associate head strength and conditioning coach at Michigan State. He was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC) in May 2010 by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), which is the highest honor given to a strength and conditioning professional.

Along with Coach Mannie, Hoke has been instrumental in coordinating the "Fourth Quarter" and "Bottom Line" offseason conditioning programs that have been one of the key reasons for MSU's success in the Coach Mark Dantonio era.

Hoke came to Michigan State following eight seasons at Appalachian State (1996-2003), including three years as an assistant before being promoted to head strength and conditioning coach in 1999 by head football coach Jerry Moore. In his role as head strength and conditioning coach, he organized workouts for Appalachian State's 20 varsity sports.

A certified strength and conditioning specialist, Hoke played an integral part in helping Appalachian State football to a combined record of 67-30 (.691) from 1996-2003, including a 48-16 record (.750) in Southern Conference games. The Mountaineers made five-straight appearances in the NCAA I-AA playoffs from 1998-2002. During his tenure, 13 Appalachian State players were invited to National Football League training camps.

Prior to his second stint at Appalachian State, Hoke spent one year as assistant strength and conditioning coach at Texas Tech (1995-96) where he worked primarily with the Red Raiders' men's basketball, women's soccer, softball and track and field programs while assisting football.

Hoke first arrived on the Appalachian State campus in 1992, working for four years as assistant strength and conditioning coach (1992-95).

He began his coaching career as an assistant track and field coach at UNC Wilmington in 1991.

A native of Durham, N.C., Hoke lettered in track and field at UNC Wilmington, competing in the javelin and shot put in 1990. He also participated in soccer in 1986.

TIM ALLEN
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
SEVENTH SEASON

Tim Allen, who previously worked together with Spartan head coach Mark Dantonio and quarterbacks coach Dave Warner at Kansas in the early 1990s, is in his seventh season as director of football operations at Michigan State.

Allen oversees the day-to-day operations and budget of the football program. His duties include coordinating team travel, bowl game preparations, future scheduling and facility updates to the Skandalaris Football Center. In addition, Allen serves as Dantonio's liaison to the equipment staff, training room, video department, field maintenance and all athletic administration.

Allen previously spent 19 seasons on Glen Mason's coaching staff at Kansas (1988-96) and Minnesota (1997-2006).

Allen came to Michigan State following 10 years at Minnesota where he served as assistant athletics director for football operations. During his tenure, the Golden Gophers made seven postseason bowl appearances, including five-straight trips from 2002-06, and finished ranked among the nation's Top 25 on two occasions (1999: ESPN/USA TODAY No. 17 and Associated Press No. 18; 2003: No. 17 ESPN/USA TODAY and AP No. 20). From 1999-2005, Minnesota averaged better than seven wins per season (50 total).

Allen previously spent 11 seasons at Kansas, first as a defensive graduate assistant in 1986 before being promoted to administrative assistant for football operations in 1987. He was retained when Mason became the Jayhawks' head coach in 1988. During his stint in Lawrence, Allen was part of one of college football's most dramatic turnarounds as Kansas recorded a pair of Aloha Bowl victories (1992 over BYU and 1995 over UCLA) and two Top 25 finishes (1992: AP No. 22 and United Press International No. 23; 1995: No. 9 AP and No. 10 UPI).

While at Kansas, he served as the academic liaison for football and organized the on-campus recruiting efforts in addition to his other football operations duties.

From 1982-85, he worked as an assistant football coach (wide receivers, 1982-83; defensive backs/special teams coordinator, 1984-85) and admissions counselor at his alma mater, Bethel College in North Newton, Kansas. In October 2003, Allen and members of the 1984 Threshers' football team that posted an undefeated regular-season record (9-0) en route to winning the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference (KCAC) championship and finishing second in the NAIA Division II final rankings were inducted into the Bethel College Athletic Hall of Fame.

A native of Seneca, Kansas, Allen earned two letters as a wide receiver and was elected team captain as a senior at Bethel College. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in health, physical education and recreation from Bethel College in 1986.

BRAD LUNSFORD
DIRECTOR OF EXECUTIVE FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
EIGHTH SEASON

Brad Lunsford is in his eighth year as a full-time member of the Spartan football staff as director of executive football operations.

Lunsford's primary responsibilities include coordinating team travel, preseason camp, training table and food services as well as administrative oversight over all practice sessions.

In addition, he supervises the comp ticket program for MSU players during the regular season and postseason; develops all administrative manuals for the program; plus assists in planning the yearly calendar as well as camps and clinics.

Lunsford also organizes and coordinates all day-to-day football-related activities for head coach Mark Dantonio and serves as the football office's liaison to the athletic communications staff.

Lunsford spent one year at Delaware State, serving as the school's first director of football operations. In his dual role as assistant athletics director, he oversaw all operations of the Hornet program in 2006, managing day-to-day administrative tasks while arranging team travel and scheduling.

Prior to spending the 2006 season at Delaware State, Lunsford worked for five years in the Michigan State football office. From September 2000 to May 2004, he was the assistant to the recruiting coordinator, managing all mailings for high school and junior college film requests, maintaining the program's recruiting database and organizing a nationwide recruiting board. In 2003, he was employed by Palace Sports and Entertainment in Auburn Hills, Mich., as a basketball operations intern for the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

DINO FOLINO
DIRECTOR OF PERSONNEL/ PLAYER DEVELOPMENT & RELATIONS
13TH SEASON

Former Spartan assistant coach Dino Folino is in his 13th year as director of personnel/player development and relations at Michigan State.

Folino's responsibilities include coordinating football student-athlete housing and summer jobs program, high school coaches clinics and football fantasy camp. In addition, he serves as the football office's liaison to National Football League scouts, student-athlete support services, sports marketing department, MSU Football Players Association and Michigan High School Football Coaches Association.

Prior to accepting a position in athletics administration, he spent 27 years in the college coaching ranks. Folino returned to Michigan State following four years at Vanderbilt (1998-2001), where he coached the secondary and served as defensive coordinator under Woody Widenhofer.

He worked one season as a defensive coordinator at Alma College (1997) and two years as the defensive backs coach at Albion College (1995-96).

Folino previously spent seven years as the secondary coach at Michigan State (1988-94) under George Perles. During his tenure, the Spartans made four bowl appearances (1989 Gator, 1989 Aloha, 1990 Sun and 1993 Liberty) and won a share of the 1990 Big Ten championship. In 1994, Michigan State led the Big Ten in passing defense (103.1 rating). In addition, Folino coached three first-team All-Big Ten selections: safety John Miller (1987-88), safety Harlon Barnett (1989) and cornerback Demetrice Martin (1994). Barnett, who now serves as secondary coach under seventh-year Michigan State head coach Mark Dantonio, also earned first-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 1989.

THIRD SEASON

Former Michigan State safety Lorenzo Guess is in his third year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Michigan State. Guess is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and certified by USA Weightlifting as a level one sports performance coach.

Guess, who previously worked with Mark Dantonio at Cincinnati as a staff assistant in 2006, has eight years of experience as a strength and conditioning coach at the collegiate level. Dantonio also served as Guess' position coach for three seasons in East Lansing (1998-2000).

A native of Wayne, Mich., Guess spent two seasons (2010-11) as an assistant director of strength and conditioning at Notre Dame while working with head coach Brian Kelly.

The 34-year old Guess also worked with Kelly for one season at Cincinnati as a tight ends coach, helping the Bearcats to a 12-1 record in 2009 and an appearance in the Sugar Bowl following UC's second-straight BIG EAST Championship. Guess mentored Ben Guidugli, who earned second-team All-BIG EAST honors after ranking fourth on the team with 27 receptions for 364 yards and three touchdowns.
